

GOALS

- to continue a neighborhood program which exposes young men from the inner city areas of Washington, especially those from disadvantaged minority groups, to a constructive program of athletic involvement and competition.
- to encourage individual self-confidence and self-respect through immediate and tangible achievement in meaningful competition.
- to teach discipline and develop perseverance toward a specific goal, providing the pattern for successful achievement in all areas of life.
- to build qualities of leadership and excellence through the awareness and responsible pursuit of team goals as well as individual accomplishment.
- to attack the problems of drugs and delinquency through demanding involvement in a program requiring top physical and mental condition.
- to provide through athletic scholarships a tangible pathway to an aspiring future.
