Children's Day

"O give thanks to the Lord, call on his name, make known his deeds among the people! Sing to him, sing praises to him, tell of all his wonderful works! Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice!" (Psalms 105:1-3)

Since the New Age or the Cosmic Era started in 1960, two great festivals have been fixed.

The first is Parents' Day, which is March 1st according to the lunar system. This was April 5th this year according to the solar system. Adam and Eve were created as the children of God to be the parents of mankind thereafter. Due to the fall of Adam and Eve, the children were taken away from God, and they joined Satan, the adulterer, the enemy to God. This broke the Heart of God and prevented the attainment of a perfect creation in man and in the universe. The ideal of God's kingdom and the purpose of His creation could not be fulfilled. Ever since the fall of man, God has been grieving and suffering to the utmost with His ruined Cosmos. And He has been carrying on His providence of restoration of man and the universe through His servants.

After a long process of His endurance and hard labor with the Israelites, God sent the Messiah, Jesus, in the place of Adam. God spoke through the prophet Isaiah, "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and his name will be called 'Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, EVERLASTING FATHER, Prince of Peace.'" (9:6) Jesus came to be the last Adam, namely to be the Everlasting Father of mankind. Since the fall of Adam and Eve, mankind has never had true parents, originating directly from God, but had only the parents of the fall, who betrayed God and were alienated from Him.

God spoke through the prophet Malachi and said, "And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their father." (4:6) Since mankind is born of fallen parents, children do not have proper respect or love toward their parents. The parents also do not have divine love for their children. The relation of parents and children is corrupt, and selfish love has been relating them. The mission of Jesus was to restore the original intrinsic relationship of father and son. Thus he was to turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers. In order to fulfill this task, One True Everlasting Father had to be installed, by whom a re-creation was possible.

"Before the restoration of all mankind, one true father must be restored in Adam's place. As God created one man, Adam, for whom He made a woman, Eve, God restores one man first, and He extends the work through him until the entire restoration is accomplished. Through Jesus, the Divine Word became flesh for the second time in order that the sinless Adam might be restored. Thus Jesus, as the second Adam, was to become the true father of mankind. "(The Divine Principles Page, 63)

However, Jesus could not complete all his work, because the Jews disposed of him in the middle of it. Hence the Second Coming of Christ became necessary. Jesus said, "the Son of man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay every man for what he has done." (Matt 16:27)

The One who fulfills the Second Coming of the Lord succeeds Jesus in his mission and completely fulfills it. When he fulfills this, he becomes the true and everlasting father of mankind. By installing him to this position, God restores a true Adam or a true Christ. The restoration of a true Adam's family, the restoration of a true Israel, and the restoration of whole world becomes possible only after the true father is installed. Hence Jesus said, "the Son of man is to come in the glory of his Father."

In April 1960, when God filled this position, a crossing junction occurred between good and evil. With this event, the ultimate promise in Revelation and in the New Testament was fulfilled. This is why since 1960, a new history has started on earth, and good is now taking the aggressive stand and will dominate the world.

To commemorate this great event, Parents' Day was fixed. This will be observed as one of great festivals in the new world without end.

God's ideal of creation could not be fulfilled until Adam and Eve produced children and thus dominated whole creation. Namely the four positions in heaven had to be installed. October 1st according to the lunar system was fixed as Children's Day or Thanksgiving Day, which is October 28th this year. Following the installation of Parents' Day, there have been two more events (heavenly weddings) by which such a condition was established that mankind was able to be restored to the status of God's children. The condition also made it possible for the true parents and true children to dominate the whole creation. Therefore it is more than thanksgiving for good harvest. Indeed it is thanksgiving for the restoration of the whole world, for heavenly harvest in the entire cosmos. This is the significance of Children's Day. Let us contemplate what our Master has attained for God and mankind, for heaven and earth. Let us return the utmost glory and praise to God. Let us express our whole-hearted joy and thanks to the Master.

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!" (Luke 2:14)

"Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband; and I heard a great voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away." (Rev. 21:1-4)

News from San Jose

As I sat down to write to you my heart is so filled with the love and yet suffering of God's heart, that I can hardly breath. For two days I have been praying and crying and fasting and witnessing to everyone I have come in contact with. This morning I went to a circle meeting and talked to everyone I could. This evening I went to another circle meeting (Methodist) and the chairman of the meeting asked me about what I was doing here in San Jose and I bluntly told her everything. During the meeting she burst out to the rest of the members what I had told her and they asked me to explain, and I gladly did. They said they would like to have me speak, or possibly if you could Miss Kim, to a group of them in the near future. They are supposed to call me. There were approximately 25 women there.

When I arrived home, Vivian was waiting for me and told me that Nina and Bill, her dear friends had finished reading the Principles and were interested in coming to the meetings. They asked her many questions and she bluntly told them everything. They seemed to agree and said if it were true, it was the most wonderful thing that has ever happened, and they would be glad to be a part of it.

Etta Heath had a wonderful experience last night. Jesus appeared to her in a dream. He was kneeling in front of a round rock with his face lifted to a great light and then all of a sudden rain began to come down upon him and it was clear as crystal. Etta also has been receiving Korean songs and playing them on the piano. She is so overjoyed and is witnessing to her customers (beauty shop), and I met two ladies she has witnessed to. One is reading already and the other one wants a book.

I met a young girl today from Arabian parentage named Rhoda Ali. She is coming over tomorrow morning to get the Divine Principles. I also met several college boys and girls this week. One boy in particular is anxious to hear the record and read the book. He is studying for the ministry of the Church of Christ.

More and more it seems to be even a waste of time to have ~~to~~ to sleep and eat. I wish I could spend every minute of every day just teaching and witnessing to the Principles. So many people are hungry for the truth and we must reach everyone.

I miss you so very much Miss Kim, and I beg your forgiveness for any sorrow I may have brought you in the past. I will never be able to thank you enough for what you have given me. You are the only Mother I have ever had and ever want, throughout eternity.

All my Love,

Doris Walder

New from Berkeley

Another month has passed and it is time for the news letter once again. Time is going by so fast with very little accomplished for God.

First of all we have been trying to get meetings going here in Berkeley. Gordon has decided to work with us full time for the Principles. He has been contacting all his friends, finding mixed reactions among these young people. Two Lutheran ministers heard and read the Principles but rejected them. Rev. Walder of the Presbyterian Church read the book. He didn't seem to get much from it, no comment any way. Dr. Pott of the First Presbyterian Church has the book reading it.

Since bringing the Divine Principles record over here, five people have heard it. Two bought books. Their names are Raymond Perez and John Roe.

Peter has been working on contacting all foreign students from the University and is finding this will take months of work. There are over 2000 foreign students.

Since school started, there are many new meetings to attend. I am praying my job will work out where I will have every evening free to go out to meetings.

On October 4th Miss Kim and George came over and moved us to Gordon's apartment. Peter, Gordon and myself all feel this is an important step we have taken. We need the prayers of all of you. We feel in the three of us living and working together we will have a foundation for God to begin his great work here in this city.

Miss Enid Lee is doing very well in her witnessing to people around Castro Valley and Oakland.

My new address: 2081 Vine St., Berkeley, Phone Th 5-4991.

Love and prayers, Pauline Phillips

News from San Francisco

In September we started placing an Ad in the San Francisco chronicle personal section each week. Each Ad concerns problems that people are seeking answers for. We witness to interested people who telephone us and invite them to our house to listen to a tape recording of the Divine Principles. We have used the following Ads to date: (1) "Why the rapid increase of suicide today?", (2) "Why the vast amount of mental illness in S. F.?", and (3) "Who stop moreal decay?". Seven people have already come from the ads.

From September 14th to 17th we were honored by the visit of Lt Col Bo Hi Pak. Five years ago Lt Col Pak was introduced to the Divine Principles by Miss Kim. He immediately recognized the great value of the message and changed from the average man in the street and an indifferent Christian to a man devoted to God. Lt Col Pak is now a staff member of Military Attache, Korean Embassy, Washington, D. C.. In Washington he has started a Karate Institute for the dual purpose of financing the work for the Divine Principles and a way of meeting young people, who would be interested in the Principles. Sunday, September 16th, we had a party at which he spoke. He said that only through the Divine Principles can one clearly understand the Bible and Bible and God. He also emphasized that our Cause with the Principles cannot fail, victory is inevitable!

Miss Kim visited San Jose every Monday and held meetings for the group there. She also started holding Thursday evening meetings in Berkeley on September 13 at Gordon's apartment.

George Norton has been busy as usual in supplying other members with the resources the need in doing their work. He has also been investigating the possibility of putting the Divine Principles on radio, but found it almost impossible without a sponsor to meet the expenses. He has started the preliminary work of publishing the next edition of the Divine Principles.

Miss Elsie Dumbreck, one of our members, is now in Australia. She is anxious to bring God's message to the people of that land. Let us all pray for her and her work.

Rev. Albert Taylor has been working hard at making contacts and witnessing. During this month he brought five people to our meetings. He is now in Los Angeles and anxious to continue this work there. Let us all pray for him and his work.

Bill and I have been going to the parks to witness every weekend. People say "Yes, I'll come," but they never do.

Miss Kim received a letter from Swami Amar Jyoti of India dated September 10th. He sent his love to all in our group. In his letter he said the following:

We are going to start a spiritual school for all religions and nations, where the students will be imparted both secular and spiritual education from the very early age. Oneness of all religions and the citizenship of the world will be inculcated into them and the dedication of the work at the feet of the Lord will be developed. More details about this endeavour will be sent to you when ready. Hope to hear from you soon again.

With love and best wishes,

AmarJyoti

A Book Review on THE LOST YEARS OF JESUS REVEALED
Newest Revelations of the Dead Sea Scrolls

by Rev. Dr. Charles Francis Potter MA, BD, STM, LHB
published 1958

1. In 1946 the secret caves of the Essene Library, miscalled the Dead Sea Scrolls were accidentally discovered by Bedouin nomads in Wady Qumran, about 14 miles from Jerusalem.
2. A century or more before the Christian New Testament the Qumran Essenes were familiar with the ideas, teachings, proverbs, prayers, beatitudes, blessings and even the beautiful sentences in Jesus Sermon on the Mount.

3. Monks of Qumran, never called themselves Essenes, but the Sons of Zadok (King Davids high priest) or the community of the New Covenant. Hundreds of evidences of the Essene origin of the ideas, beliefs, and teachings of Jesus, John the Baptist, John the disciple, Paul, and other New Testament writers have been noted by scholars working on the scrolls.

4. And now that the proven Mother of Christianity is known to have been the prior Community of the New Covenant, commonly called the Essenes, the momentous question challenging the conscience of all Christian world is whether the child will have the grace, courage, and honesty to acknowledge and honor its own mother.

5. The Essenes were the intermediate step between Judaism and Christianity, about 200 BC to 100 AD.

6. It is a difficult task today to separate what was new and original in Jesus teachings from what he learned from the Essenes and from other Jews, and perhaps Greeks as well. One thing is emerging from the study of the scrolls namely, that the beliefs, teachings and practices of Jesus himself, although not identical in all respects with those of the Essene school that he probably attended during the "silent years" were apparently closer to those of the Essenes than to those of the Bishops of the Ecumenical Council which determined the Nicene Creed of orthodox Christianity. Jesus called himself the Son of man, they called him the Son of God, the second person of the Trinity, very God of God.

7. The Sadducees were the extreme right, the Pharisees all stripes of center, then going left from them were the Essenes, Gnostics, and Zealots, in that order.

8. It has long been suspected that Enochian literature was written by Essenes and "the Essene Book of Enoch", was the missing link between Judaism and Christianity. It was Jerome who commissioned by Pope Damasus I in AD 382 to make a Latin translation of the Bible from old Latin, Greek and Hebrew.* The Book of Enoch was available to Jesus and was said to be used as a constant reference by Paul. Now, since the Book of Enoch was all to informing about the real origin of so many ideas, doctrines, and practices of the early Christian Church, and betrayed how the theologians had interpreted, twisted excised, interpolated, and even misquoted parts of the source documents, it is not difficult to understand why Enoch and all his tell-tale works, plus related apocalyptic and pseudepigraphic books similarly dangerous, simply must be excluded from the official canon.

9. Also these scrolls seem to indicate that Jesus was a man with great ability to teach the people the teachings, beliefs, sayings that originated from the books used as source material for the Essene Library and that he was not God.

10. Dr. Charles Francis Potter said to one leading Christian theologian, "now you know, what are you going to tell the dear people." He replied, "I have decided to break it gently by saying that the scrolls reveal that there were three or four Essene Sects in Palestine in Jesus' day, of which all died out but one, which is now popularly known as Christianity."

A Letter from Castro Valley

Greetings of Peace to my fellow pilgrims at Home and overseas. My heart is truly thankful for this opportunity to send Best Wishes and gratitude of Love to Miss Kim, for

* Jerome purposely left out the Book of Enoch, so that Jesus' sayings and teachings would appear to be originally his own.

Her service to Life at this time.

Eternal Love and gratitude to our Leader, on behalf of myself and all mankind, especially those who are not aware of Thy Presence.

To those in this area who eagerly awaits this News Letter, re- the experiences and progress of each ones "Frontier" bless you! simple as this little piece of dynamite" may seem, it is as good as being written in our "Book of Life". Therefore you will share with me tonight, while the valley sleeps, those brief events of interest.

First, permit me to explain humbly, re- a statement which was made in a letter from "Ghana" last month, "quote" - whose footsteps I and my sincere students are following, etc. This was indeed lovely and sincerely put. On entering the Home soon after, the first question (the Home in San Francisco i.e.) which was put to me was, are you a leader of a group? We have read about you etc. On that said evening, we listen to our very gracious visitor from Washington D. C. when from His Heart came these words, "quote" - that - "I do not feel at all proud of these facts, etc, for the great responsibility it entails" Indeed such a statement carries with it a grave responsibility, none the less, what our friend in Ghana meant was, simply "that determination to seek, to prove all things, to hold fast to that which was GOOD to keep steadfast on Those Paths of Truth, and to share with them that which I realize as GOOD! Thank you. . . .

"The Divine Principles" each week Patty and myself meet in Hayward to read and to discuss therefrom. Pooling our energies together, we try to hold the concept of many visitors interested in The Principles, . . . Hayward is a very interesting spot in which to work, by using the thoughts of the resurrection we hope to unearth some souls in the near future, your prayers is needed for more Light in this area.

Alas! Castro Valley, this has not been explored as yet. A sleepy little village which requires a most dynamic person to awaken it. One must be well armed with all the Wisdom of These Principles, before any attempt to attack same. This is a possibility, when more illumination is earned Re- The Principles. In the mean time a friend (who loves Truth) Mrs. Duperrioir) next door to us, is reading the Book and finding much food for thought, will say more about her in my next, your prayers is required for her also please.

While awaiting news from New York City, a few more Witnessing Letters were sent off by Air-Mail, it seem that sata reached the persons before the letters. Reactions will be given in my next, these were sent overseas.

"I AM" indeed thankful for this blest opportunity to serve with you, May the Love and Peace of The Father abide forever with each of us as we strive to do His Will.

Humbly in His service I AM,

Enid Lee

A Letter to the Leader

To Our Most Mighty and Blessed Lord!

Praise to thy name, my most respected "father". Through the efforts of Pauline Phillips and Peter Koch, I was brought to the house of our blessed mother in faith, Miss Kim. She taught me of your revelation and works and though I was at first unbelieving and slightly astonished, I studied the Divine Principles and attended the meetings at Miss Kim's regularly and prayed for the light of God, Our Father to enlighten my mind and for His Spirit to work in my heart that I might know whether this revelation was true or not. After about a month of prayer, study, and thought, I was moved to accept the Divine Principles as true, as Truth, even though such acceptance might mean rejection by my father and mother, by my friends, by my Church (Lutheran), by my society (the U. S.), and even by the world - for in my heart I know that this is the Truth!

I am presently studying for the M. A. degree in Linguistics at the University of California in Berkeley. I shall receive the degree in June 1963. Originally I had planned to work for the Ph. D. degree, but there is no time! All one's efforts must be devoted to the establishment of the Kingdom, of telling mankind of this glorious Gospel and of your most wonderful attainments!

O Father, how my heart goes out to you! I shall try my best to be trustworthy and obedient in the eyes of God that I may thus be a better vessel or temple for the working of His Spirit. The need for more hands, more bodies is urgent! We need voices to proclaim the Good News - but so many are lukewarm or are uninterested; if they only knew!

At present, I am working on informing the students at the theological seminaries in Berkeley. So far, I have talked to ten or so seniors (4th year students) at Pacific Lutheran Seminary - some of them were my classmates when I was at the Seminary two years ago -, but none has come to any of the meetings in Berkeley or San Francisco. I am learning that the Christians who are involved in Christianity and the Church are the hardest to convince! Their ears are closed. But then I have only just started, I have only been in the faith for three weeks; perhaps with a constant effort on my part (indeed, not me, but the Spirit of God within me), a few will listen and follow.

My prayers are with you, Blessed Lord, and with all those in Korea who are preaching Thy Word. May all creation join together in praising Thee and Thy Glorious Name now and forevermore. Amen.

Your devoted son,

Gordon Ross

Master's Prayer

(on the occasion of the Joint Wedding of the 72 couples)

Continued in part..... We did not realize that there were enemies. We did not realize that the enemies were standing against heaven and earth. We did not realize the whole world was in their hands. Father! Now we know this. The enemies are trying to control mankind continually, and will do so even in the future. They are standing against Thee, against the True Parents, against the true families, and they have also been standing against your faithful servants throughout all ages. Father! how long you have been waiting for those who can and will conquer and subjugate these enemies! Father! give the responsibility to those who are blessed today. We are even at this moment amidst the enemies' camp. Hearing the enemies shouting, we must march on to the enemies' camp. Our whole being is completely ready for the command to rush into the enemies' camp. We know, Father, what sorrow and grief came to Adam's family when sin was repeated on the alters of Cain and Abel! We must restore that in which Adam failed. We must untie the entangled and complicated history of evil and straighten it out. We must feel indignant about the fact that Cain slew Abel, and we must go through the bloody way for Abel. The rebellious descendants passed 1600 years under the enemies' control. Then Noah was raised and judgment exercised by flood. But because of Ham's failure your dispensation was delayed another 400 years. You raised Abraham, but he also failed and brought about 400 years of slavery in Egypt. Let us realize, Father, how deeply, you have been grieving and suffering in all these events. We must follow the sorrowful path which our predecessors have gone through to fulfill your Will. When Noah heard the voice of God, he obeyed with gratefulness and awe. His family laughed at him. Other people mocked at him and said he was crazy. Noah cried and shouted that there would be 40 days of flood judgment, even when there was no sign of rain. No ears listened to him, no eyes paid attention to him. The flood judgment came upon them without delay, but no one responded to Noah's tearful appeals! Alas, this foundation also was destroyed. Why did the Israelites suffer for 400 years in Egypt? What a sorrow it was! When their suffering was over the Israelites were anxious to see the land of God's promise. But the way to the land was not an easy one. You sent four major prophets and twelve minor prophets, but no one listened to them or received them. In order to straighten out all these crooked paths, the Messiah came. Who knew that the baby in the manger of Bethlehem was the Messiah? We have gathered here, Father, to make this nation prosper, to make whole ~~w~~ mankind prosper, and to make you, Father, prosper. We dedicate ourselves to this Cause, to Your Will. We are willing to bear hunger, hardship, despite, because we have such a mission to fulfill, such a task to untie the complex entanglement of history. Our Their fathers and mothers did not receive them. Their intimate friends turned away from them. Their whole society despised them. Fellow Christians condemned them as heretics and rejected them. However, you have raised them and led them with most loving care, for which I am only thankful. People have rejected Your Word despite their ~~a~~ earnest witnessing. I am afraid that this will bring disaster upon them. I have now married these people through You and centered upon You Father. Let them make it their daily task to become true husbands and wives before you and most obedient sons and daughters to you, Father. Let them make it their life's goal to become truly good men and women on earth. Today is June 4th, May 3rd according to our lunar system! Who knew that this would be the Day for which you had been waiting so long. To see this Day how much You have endured and grieved throughout all ages! I now dedicate, Father, these ~~73~~ seventy two couples to You. With them I will lay a foundation and make a new start. Make them the foundation of Restoration. If you wish us to endure further, we shall do so. We are determined and resolved; nothing can stop us. The Day of Promise is very near at hand. I didn't think that I would be able to live this long, but You have sustained me through all hardships. You said to me once, "The way to death is calling you, will you still go on?" Father, this voice is still fresh to me. I do thank you, Father. You took hold of me when I was weak and stumbling. You encouraged me and strengthened me over and over again, saying, "Endure, Endure!" When I was beaten, You were beaten with me. When I was reviled, you were reviled with me. If there is anything I can be proud of, it is all yours. From one to thousand, all things are your Father! I am now closing this ceremony. Father, remember this Day, June 4th, 1962. Please now liberate all angels, the twenty four elders, and all saints, and let them sing and dance with joy because of this Day. Amen.
