

A Great experience in the Poconos. Blessing at Sanctuary Church

As we flew into Newark airport, a clear Friday night, the full moon shone on the a Freedom Tower and the Statue of Liberty. It was very moving. We rented a car and stayed at the Hilton Garden Inn in Rockaway. Early Saturday morning we drove to Newfoundland, a little over an hour away. It seemed shorter because the drive is so beautiful and ones spirit is enhanced as you get closer to Newfoundland.

We visited Sanctuary Church and checked out the surrounding area. Sparky's Restaurant, some beautiful lakes, and peaceful scenery. We felt a very good spirit all day.

That night at the hotel, I drifted off to sleep, and envisioned myself being sprinkled by holy water by Heung Jin Im, but then Father's spirit shone through him and sprinkled us with Holy Water. I woke up and tears came to my eyes.

The next morning we headed back to Sanctuary Church for the big event. There were so many family there from all over the world. It was like old times again only better.

A beautiful fresh spirit encompassed us all and the programs began. Many times I envisioned Father in my mind's eye and felt his presence. Tearing up was rather commonplace. I heard that Hyung Jin Im devotes all of Saturday to prepare for Sunday. Yesterday it was reported that Father came to him while he was preparing and he just broke down in tears.

Needless to say it was an epic event and I heard that it reverberated world wide.

Everything went very smoothly internally and externally. I recommend all to keep striving to connect with Father, as he said we all can. That is, and always has been, the real solution to any problems.
