Support the 430 Blessing Outreach

Speaker Series

Linked here is an invitation flier to a speakers series I am launching at the Washington Times, starting in December. I have written to each of the speakers to let me know the title of their presentations. But generally, every presentation will focus on how to spiritually strengthen marriages and families, and will be geared for a broad-based audience.

It is designed to provide non-threatening educational content to those who have received holy juice/wine as part of our 430 couple campaigns.

It is available for any spiritual parent to invite their couples to attend (both members of a couple don't have to attend - either member can also attend individually).

Spiritual Parents must type in THEIR OWN EMAIL ADDRESS in the field on the bottom, so that their guests will RSVP to THEM.

Then they can print out multiple copies of the invitation with their own email address included.

When a guest RSVPs to a Spiritual Parent:

- 1. The spiritual parent should ideally reach out to the guest and clarify details and encourage them;
- 2. The spiritual parent is then requested to email me with the names of the guests and the dates they will attend so I can compile guest lists.
- 3. I would strongly encourage the spiritual parents to attend with their guests!!!! (And if so, to include their own names in the confirmation they send to me).

I will be testing a new sign that has been approved by HQ. It should arrive late next week. If it works well, I will provide artwork so that anyone interested can make a copy, and I will cover up to 50% of the cost (total cost is $84 delivered) to help defray the cost for those members who have trouble affording the signs.

Blessings,
