

FFWPU UK: New Opportunities For Youth With IAYSP

Michael Balcomb
September 11, 2024

Join IAYSP EUME for exciting upcoming opportunities including a social media internship and the Annual Assembly coming up in Hungary...

'Join us in Budapest, Hungary, from October 24th to 27th for the S!nergy and Youth Assembly 2024. This event brings together approximately 50 young leaders from Europe and the Middle East to share their visions, projects, and best practices related to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). With renowned speakers and trainers, participants will gain insights into effective project development and implementation, fostering global citizenship and sustainable solutions. The fee per participant is €150,00 including 3 nights accommodation, food, public transport in Budapest and the Assembly itself.'

If you would possibly be interested in becoming involved in YSP UK in the next year, attending the Annual Assembly will be a great start where you can gain inspiration, meet members from other chapters across Europe and the Middle East and plan events for the year ahead. If you would be interested or want to find out more please contact Sophia N. who is the Director for YSP UK please reach out personally or to the YSP UK email at yspukmedia@gmail.com. There is also the potential for YSP UK to present a project idea at S!nergy so please reach out if you have any ideas in regards to that. The deadline for applications is 25th September!

What Participants' Say And Think

Step into the inspiring world of Youth and Students for Peace through the voices of our community. Dive into testimonials that reflect our commitment to nurturing young leaders and fostering a culture of peace and unity. Explore a few participants' stories and see how YSP is shaping a brighter future for generations to come.

First of all, I am very grateful that I took part in this program, I got to know new people and new cultures, it also influenced me to improve my communication and presentation skills, it made me more open-minded and also helped in the part of being myself and not having complexes when it comes to expressing my opinion, every day I am more and more inspired to do good deeds, help people around me and contribute to my community. I recommend it to all young people as it is a very beautiful experience from which you get and benefit many great things. I thank Dr. Hak ja Han Moon from the bottom of my heart because it is to her credit that this organization unites us people from different countries of the world and makes us better persons.

IAYSP supports the Sustainable Development Goals

What is S!NERGY

S!NERGY, an initiative by the International Association of Youth and Students for Peace in Japan, has now expanded its reach to other IAYSP national chapters, making it a global platform for students and young individuals to showcase their projects and ideas that align with the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This event provides an opportunity for participants to present their initiatives in a professional setting. A judging panel, comprising accomplished young individuals with successful projects, along with esteemed guests, engages in a collaborative voting process with the audience to determine the best idea and presentation. The selected winner is awarded a grant to further support their exceptional project, making S!NERGY a valuable avenue to gain both publicity and financial backing for your initiative.

Purpose of S!NERGY

For presenters to share their knowledge

Inspire other young people

For YSP to be able to give

Rules and Guidelines

Who can participate

Anyone aged 30 and under is eligible to compete (unless a specific S!NERGY event specifies otherwise).

In order to apply for any of the S!NERGY competitions posted on our website, participants must display some understanding of the YSP Peace Perspective.*

Submitting a presentation

If you would like to participate in a S!NERGY competition, be sure to fill in the required fields of the online submission form once a competition is announced.

The submissions will be reviewed by a committee, and the top submissions then selected to be presented live on stage or to an online audience. These live presentations need to be 7-10 minutes long, relating to the theme of the specific S!NERGY event. There are local, national, regional and global levels of S!NERGY events.

- ✓ Local level S!NERGY events are usually hosted by a local YSP group in partnership with a city council, school or organization.
- ✓ National level S!NERGY events can be open to multiple cities and are hosted by a national YSP chapter.
- ✓ Regional level S!NERGY events welcome submissions from any country within the region and are hosted by the regional YSP team.

Rules for entering into multiple S!NERGY competitions

Participants may submit multiple presentations to the same competition, but only one submission can be selected to be presented live.

The same presentation can be submitted to different S!NERGY competitions as long as they are not of the same level (i.e. local, national, regional).

Presentation Guidelines

- ✓ Presenter must be age 16-30 and have watched the YSP Peace Perspective
- ✓ Content should be either a realised, ongoing project OR a project proposal to create peaceful, more sustainable development and a better society
- ✓ Clearly state the issue you are trying to address and how you will go about solving it
- ✓ Share a personal connection with the issue and how it affects you/your community

All Regional S!NERGY competitions (S!NERGY X Europe & Middle East) are shown on this website. Participants can enter the same presentation to multiple Regional S!NERGY competitions only if they have not been awarded 1st place before.

Presentations will be judged on:

- ✔ Inspiration (energy and conviction)
- ✔ Content (importance and feasibility)
- ✔ Delivery (quality of slides, articulation)

it affects you/ others

- ✔ Link to at least one of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
- ✔ Have a clear theme, related to the theme indicated for the event
- ✔ Keep slides simple and clean
- ✔ Do not use copyrighted images
- ✔ Make sure any facts are accurate
- ✔ Use clear, readable fonts for your slides

Social Media Internship

Organization: IAYSP EUME (Europe and Middle East)

Commitment: 3-5 hours per week

Duration: 6 months

Compensation: Unpaid (Recommendation letter provided upon completion)

About Us:

International Association of Youth and Students for Peace in Europe and the Middle East (IAYSP EUME) is a regional branch of the global IAYSP organization, which focuses on empowering young people to become leaders in peace-building, community service, and social responsibility. IAYSP EUME engages youth across Europe and the Middle East in various initiatives that promote values of peace, unity, and positive social change. Through educational programs, service projects, and leadership training, the organization aims to inspire and equip the next generation to contribute meaningfully to their communities and the world.

Role Description:

We are seeking a motivated Social Media Intern to join our team! This is a fantastic opportunity for someone passionate about social media, communication, and youth engagement. As an intern, you will assist in creating content, managing our platforms, and helping grow our online presence—all from the comfort of your home.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist in developing and scheduling social media content (posts, stories, etc.)
- Engage with our online community through comments, messages, and campaigns
- Support creative brainstorming sessions for campaigns and initiatives
- Collaborate with team members to ensure brand consistency

Requirements:

- Interest in social media management and content creation
- Basic understanding of platforms like Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Ability to work independently and meet deadlines
- Creativity and a passion for youth empowerment
- Reliable internet connection

Benefits:

- Gain hands-on experience in social media management
- Enhance your digital marketing and communication skills
- Receive a recommendation letter upon successful completion of the internship
- Certificate of completion that acknowledges the intern's role and the skills they developed during the internship.

How to Apply: To express your interest, please reach out via email by expressing your interest and attach your most recent resume/CV.
