

FFWPU UK: Thank You, Alma G., for invaluable service, to both UK and European communities

Michael Balcomb
September 25, 2024

Thank You, Alma!

Alma G., Executive Assistant and HR Officer at FFWPU-UK, is moving on after years of invaluable service, contributing to both UK and European communities. We would like to take a moment to express our heartfelt thanks to Alma G., our Executive Assistant and Human Resources Officer, as she moves on from her role with FFWPU-UK. Alma has been an invaluable part of our team, contributing significantly not only to the UK branch but also to our wider European community.

In recent years, Alma has been instrumental in supporting both the National Director and the Communications Team, all while handling human resources within the organisation. Her positive, can-do attitude has made her a joy to work with, and her dedication has been deeply appreciated by all who had the pleasure of collaborating with her.

Despite her responsibilities in the UK, Alma has also made a meaningful impact on the broader movement, contributing to the success of the Bloom! Festival and serving as a director during the recent pilgrimage to South Korea.

Dr Balcomb, our National Director, said:

"I'm really grateful to Alma for all of her support and help over the last two years, not just for me personally but for everyone in our headquarters and indeed our entire British and European community. We are really going to miss her!

But at the same time I'm grateful that she's decided to take some time to join a programme for her own spiritual growth. In the long run we all need to constantly be developing our relationship with our Heavenly Parent.

I'm sure that there are many blessings ahead of her."

As Alma embarks on the next chapter of her journey with the DONE program, we wish her nothing but success. We are confident she will continue to make a positive difference wherever she goes, and we look forward to welcoming her back to the UK for future projects. Good luck, Alma, and thank you once again for all your hard work and dedication!