

FFWPU UK: The annual Nordic Winter Workshop for Young Adults Returns

Michael Balcomb
November 5, 2024

The annual Nordic Winter Workshop is back, blending the best of a retreat and workshop for young adults ready to experience the true Nordic winter. This year, a dedicated team of 2nd-generation members is planning the event so that staff, too, can fully participate in the activities - from cosy fireside gatherings to sauna sessions.

With only 25 spots left, this €130 workshop includes five days of community, sessions with main speaker Matthew Huish, and even some exclusive workshop merchandise. Embrace winter, make new friends, and join us for an unforgettable time in the North!

Hi all! We had a few people ask for the Nordic Winter Workshop, and as per tradition, here is a late invitation

We have a large team of 2nd generation members who are doing the planning together so that also the staff can participate and enjoy the workshop. This is an adult/young adult ws, so we are avoiding putting all the responsibility on one person. We welcome all participants to contribute in some way in whatever shape or form they would like to support. If you just want to come and hang out, do sauna and experience a real cosy winter in the North, join us

This workshop is a mix of a retreat and a workshop, giving you the flexibility and choice in either just hanging out with other young adults and peers or if you would rather do activities, this is your workshop.

The workshop is sponsored by EUME, plus the workshop site is practically free due "Finnish socialism" and the main staff body are all paying the workshop fee; this allows us to offer you this workshop for only €130. Which is a bargain for 5 full days (plus arrival and departure days).

The venue can host 40 people. We have 25 spots left right now (when this was posted). Don't wait too long to reserve your spot.

Matthew Huish will be our main speaker. You heard that right
Oh, one more thing. There will be merch included in the price

"...I wanna apply twice. This stuff is so good." - Another really cool person
