

The First Israeli Family Festival 2020 celebrating True Parents' Centenary

Hod Ben-Zvi

January 24, 2020

Daliat El Carmel, Israel

Happy 53rd True Heavenly Parent's Day!

Today Friday, Jan 24th, we held our first Family Festival to celebrate True Parents' Centenary. Some 150 people gathered at Yad Labanim Hall in Daliat El Carmel from 4 different faiths: Druze, Jews, Moslems, and Christians. Despite the bitter cold (the hall wasn't heated) the participants were in high spirits.

The program featured a large display of True Parents' accomplishment, Senior AFP praising True Parents' life work, reading from True Father's biography, as well as a variety of entertainment: Druze Dance troupe, an oud player, Joggler, Arabic singer and a clown.

The event concluded with distributing True Father's biography books and an award ceremony for good families.