

FFWPU Founder Dr. Hak Ja Han Donates One Million Dollars to Earthquake Victims in Nepal

Yun Ki Choi
May 4, 2015

[KBS] Religious Circle, Reaching out to Nepal with Helping Hands in Succession

The domestic religious circles are reaching out, one after another, to help earthquake-ravaged Nepal.

Family Federation for World Peace and Unification donated one million dollars toward Nepal relief efforts, and also plans to dispatch disaster relief personnel.

Furthermore, this morning (27th), the Korea Christianity Volunteering Group has decided to send an emergency relief team to Nepal, and the Jogye Order of Buddhism also plans to discuss relief donations and the dispatching of a relief team...

[Yonhap News] Family Federation Founder Dr. Hak Ja Han Gives One Million dollars toward Nepal Relief Efforts

The Family Federation for World Peace and Unification revealed on the 26th that Dr. Hak Ja Han of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (hereafter referred to as Family Federation) would donate one million dollars (1.1 billion won) in emergency relief aid to Nepal, which was severely devastated.

Dr. Han received a report about the situation in Nepal from Asia's Regional President Chung-Shik Yong, who was dispatched to Nepal, and ordered disaster relief personnel to be dispatched as well.

Family Federation plans to compose a volunteering team centering on its members in Asian nations including Korea, Japan and the Philippines, and then dispatch them to Nepal...

[Munhwa Ilbo] Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, Donates One Million Dollars to Nepal

The Family Federation for World Peace and Unification revealed on the 26th that Dr. Hak Ja Han (photo) of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (Family Federation) would donate one million dollars (1.1 billion won) in emergency relief aid to Nepal, which was severely devastated. Dr. Han received a report about the situation in Nepal from Asia's Regional President Chung-Shik Yong, who was dispatched to Nepal, and ordered disaster relief personnel to be dispatched as well. Family Federation authorities said that "Currently, there are ten missionaries dispatched in Kathmandu," and that "none of the missionaries were hurt and there was no damage to the headquarters building." ...

[JoongAng Times] Dr. Hak Ja Han Donates One Million Dollars in Emergency Relief Aid to Nepal

Family Federation World Headquarters President Man-Ho Kim revealed on the 26th that Dr. Hak Ja Han of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (hereafter referred to as Family Federation) will donate one million dollars in emergency relief aid to Nepal, where the damage is compounding like a snowball, as over 1,800 people have died and buildings have been heavily damaged, due to the 7.8 magnitude earthquake that rocked the capital of Nepal, Kathmandu....