

Family Federation Builds International Peace Education Center in Las Vegas

Yun Ki Choi
May 28, 2015

[Yonhap News] Family Federation Builds International Peace Education Center in Las Vegas

The Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (hereafter referred to as Family Federation) revealed that on the 28th (local time), Dr. Hak Ja Han and 700 people participated in the Opening Ceremony for the International Peace Education Center held in Las Vegas, Nevada, a landmark international tourist venue. According to the Family Federation, in 2011, Rev. Sun Myung Moon (1920~2012) and Dr. Hak Ja Han selected the 12,540m² storage located on a 24,280m² parcel of land near the McCarran International Airport as the site for the International Peace Education Center. The following year, work to clear the site for construction began in order to make way for building the International Peace Education Center. The Family Federation explained that while Rev. Sun Myung Moon was still alive, he selected the International Peace Education Center as the primary education facility in America, and made plans to educate people about peace there...

[Maeil Economics] Family Federation Builds International Peace Education Center in Las Vegas

On the 28th, Dr. Hak Ja Han and 700 people participated in the Opening Ceremony for the International Peace Education Center held in Las Vegas, Nevada, a landmark international tourist city.

According to the Family Federation, in 2011, Rev. Sun Myung Moon (1920~2012) and Dr. Hak Ja Han selected the 12,540m² storage located on a 24,280m² parcel of land near the McCarran International Airport as the site for the International Peace Education Center.

The Family Federation explained that while Rev. Sun Myung Moon was still alive, he selected the International Peace Education Center as the primary education facility in America, and made plans to educate people about peace there...