Pastor’s Weekly Greeting

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

This week we sent our beloved sister Christine Kung off to be with True Father in the spiritual world. It was a beautiful Seong Hwa ceremony, held in Queens, with over 200 brothers and sisters (including members of her extended family). I was inspired by the example that John and his daughter Diane demonstrated. They truly embraced True Parent’s perspective on life and death. And, I was especially happy to see that, even though there was a steady rain, many members came to participate in the Won Jon ceremony.

John Kung asked me to post this:

*We are so grateful to all those who prayed and donated for Christine Kung's transition to the spirit world. We, and I am sure Christine also, feel the love and support from all our friends and family members.
God bless you and your family!*

The Kung Family

John Kung,

Diane, Young Joon, and Taebin and Yoobin Jeon

I have found over the years that the Seong Hwa ceremony (what others call a funeral) is one of the most beautiful and deeply moving experiences that our church community offers. As we all know – each of our own Seong Hwas is coming. In a sense, it is in preparation for that moment that we are living our lives in this physical world – learning how to love and be loved.

In this week’s sermon I shared from Jacob’s story with Esau. The key point is the importance of setting goals and making plans to achieve those goals. Time is passing us by so quickly. This year is going to end in just a few weeks. So let’s consider True Parents heart and will and then let’s make clear goals and plans that we can carry out. Jacob’s goal was to win over Esau. Let us each pick someone in our life that we want to win over through God's love and truth. That will make our New Year start the best that it can be.

Make it a great week!
God Bless You and your Family,
Andrew Compton

Light Thought for the Day

Driver's Permit

A young man had just gotten his driver's permit and inquired of his father, an evangelist, if they could discuss the use of the car. His father took him to the study and said to the boy, "I'll make a deal with you, son. You bring your grades up from a C to a B- average, study your Bible a little, and get your hair cut and we'll talk about the car."

Well, the boy thought about that for a moment and decided that he'd best settle for the offer, and they agreed.

After about six weeks the boy came back and again asked his father about the car. Again they went to the study where his father said, "Son, I've been real proud of you. You've brought your grades up, and I've observed that you've been studying your Bible and participating a lot more in the Bible study class on Sunday morning. But I'm real disappointed seeing as you haven't got your hair cut."

The young man paused a moment and then said, "You know, Dad, I've been thinking about that, and I've noticed in my studies of the Bible that Sampson had long hair, Moses had long hair, John the Baptizer had long hair, and there's even strong argument that Jesus Himself had long hair."

To which his father replied, "Perhaps, and they WALKED everywhere they went!"
