Pastor's Weekly Greeting

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

Greetings!

I pray that you are keeping safe and warm through the storm!

I think of this kind of weather as God giving me special time to reflect, to pray, to go over important things with my spouse and to do things I might not otherwise do. It is also a good time for writing letters to my family members and contacts (i.e. do some Tribal Messiah" work that's hard to find time for with my usual daily schedule).

As a point of inspiration – please watch the video of Rev Vincenz’s Seong Hwa. It should be posted soon at: www.familyfed.org

One side note; I am continuing to work on developing internet witnessing. For that purpose I made a new 12 minute video, “Sun Myung Moon; Why Is He So Special?” If you would like to view it, go to: <http://vimeo.com/117688861>

I welcome any comments or suggestions.

Let’s make this a great week!

God Bless You!

Humor for the Week

Snowed In

Ole and Lena were sitting down to their usual cup of morning coffee, listening to the weather report coming over the radio. "There will be 3 to 5 inches of snow today and a snow emergency has been declared. You must park your cars on the odd numbered side of the streets." Ole got up from his coffee and replies "Jeez, OK."

Two days later, again they are both sitting down with their cups of morning coffee and the weather forecast is, "There will be 2 to 4 inches of snow today and a snow emergency has been declared. You must park your cars on the even numbered side of the streets." Ole got up from his coffee and replies, "Jeez, OK."

Three days later, they both are once again sitting down with their cups of coffee and the weather forecast is, "There will be 6 to 8 inches of snow today and a snow emergency has been declared. You must park your cars on the..." and then the power went out and Ole didn't get the rest of the instructions. He says to Lena, "Jeez, what am I going to do now, Lena?" Lena replies, "Aw, Ole, just leave the car in the garage."
