

Eastern Europe Highlights
December 2024

CheonBo Event at the Moscow Peace Embassy 14–15 December 2024

From 23 November to 15 December, the CheonBo EUME Branch organised CheonBo Events in the four Russian cities of Yekaterinburg, Ulyanovsk, St. Petersburg and Moscow. A total of 671 participated in person, with 361 online within Russia and a further 250 from nations outside Russia.

2024 Heavenly Europe and the M

2024 Heavenly Europe and the Middle East Tour

Hyojeong CheonBo Heavenly Europe and the Middle East Special Event

CheonBo Event in St. Petersburg 7–8 December 2024

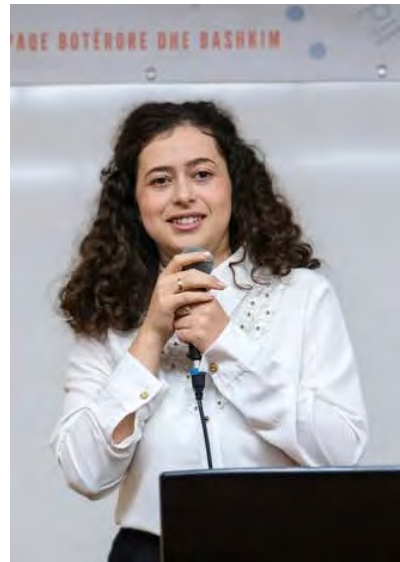

CheonBo Event in Ulyanovsk 30 November – 1 December 2024

CheonBo Event in Yekaterinburg 23-24 November 2024

Albanian Youth Seminar Introduces Chambumo Ron

A five-day National Youth Seminar just concluded in Shin Albania. The approximately 50 participants included, for the first time, 15 new guests. The Divine Principle lectures included an introduction to Chambumo Ron. The seminar was organized jointly by the Albanian chapters of FFWPU and W-CARP. – Manjola Vasmatics

Initiating 34 New Members in Shin Albania

Farewell Worship Service with Shin Chul and Ji Woo in Shin Albania

On 8th December, True Parents' grandson Shin Chul and his wife, Ji Woo, completed their nine-month mission in Shin Albania by holding one final and well-attended Cheon Myeong Worship Service at the CIG Peace Embassy in Tirana. With great humility and sincerity, they spoke about their missionary experience, what they learned, and issues that challenged them. It was a heartwarming farewell as they prepared to travel to several other countries in the EUME region.

Moldova YSP Discuss Personal Development

Personal development was the theme of the most recent Youth Club meeting. After reading and discussing True Parents' words, the seven participants each set a goal for personal development. – Sabina Nadejdin

Romanian Schoolchildren Learn How to Be Peacemakers

Romanian members visited a school in the village of Negrilesti to offer Peace Education talks to children aged 6 to 15 years.

This was the second visit to the school after a first visit in the summer, and this time all of the school's 65 pupils were present. The theme was "Peace Starts with Me."

After a beautiful Korean song performed by missionaries Shawna and Akitaka, a talk was given about Korean culture and history and the need for peaceful reunification. Then there was an activity called "Quest to Become Peacemakers," in which each child said what they would do to become a peacemaker. Next, the children tried on traditional Korean clothes and made calligraphy. In the end, seven teachers, including the school director and the mayor's wife, were awarded Ambassador for Peace certificates. FFWPU signed a contract with this school for future projects. – Miki Predescu

Romanians around the World Have Online Reunion

Romanian brothers and sisters who currently are living in different countries, as well as former and current missionaries to Romania, came together at the Third Online Reunion. The 19 participants included six Japanese missionaries and the National Messiah from Japan. The meeting started with a video about the history of the Romanian movement. Then each participant gave a report about their experiences in 2024. The current missionaries Akitaka and Shawna were introduced, and then the national leader reported about Romanian activities of this year. The participants were very happy to hear that Romanian witnessing is ongoing and that there are three new candidates for matching and Blessing. They were also happy to meet the new Romanian CARP leader, Alexandra. – Miki Predescu

Russian Schoolchildren Warned about Obscenities, Bullying

The Russian chapter of WFPW visited a public school in a Moscow suburb to give lectures about obscenities and bullying. More than 90 second-year children in three classes listened attentively to the lectures and actively volunteered their opinions. Teachers and parents expressed their sincere gratitude to the WFPW representative for the visit. – Olga Vakulinskaya

Estonian 'Christmas Room' Offers Blessing

Estonian members have found a way to combine Blessing activities and fundraising by setting up a "Christmas Room" in their Peace Embassy in Riga. Christmas decorations, soft lighting and recorded music create a holiday mood. Handmade Christmas cards and crafts are for sale. In one day, 20 visitors to the Christmas Room received Holy Wine, including people from Italy and Portugal. – Olga Martinson

Estonian FFWPU Leader Tells Life Story to “Soul Healer”

Signe Kalberg, a well-known former journalist who currently works as a soul healer, interviewed Avo Martinson, who with his wife, Olga, leads the movement in Estonia. Ms. Kalberg told Avo that she wants to write an article for a healing magazine about his presentation “Life After Life.” During the meeting, Avo spoke about joining the Unification Movement, his journey in search of the truth, and the challenges he faced along the way. He also introduced the core teachings of the Divine Principle. He gave a copy of True Father’s autobiography to the journalist, who seemed deeply moved by the way that God has worked in Avo’s life. – Avo Martinson

Thank you!