Newly-weds blessed by multi-faith extended family

Dhiren Katwa

Theresa and Daniel's wedding reception last Saturday was one which stood out from the rest. The variety and diversity from every dimension was simply unique. Attended by around 140 guests, the gathering truly reflected the multi-cultural make-up, certainly of Birmingham. The master of ceremonies was David, the bride's father. He introduced and called upon guests who had agreed to perform an item in honour of the newly-weds. The lilac-themed event began with a prayer by Rev Winnie Gordon, followed by a reading from the Bible by Natasha, the bride's sister. The programme also featured wedding songs in Punjabi and Urdu, respectively, by Pawanjit Ubhi and Sabira Karmal. Swaran Talwar, Rama Joshi and Raksha Solanki added an Indian flavour to the fusion by performing a wedding song in Punjabi. A poem was read by Marjorie Saunders, representing the Jewish Progressive Synagogue. Colin and Maureen Foxall from the Christian faith sang 'Brother, Sister,

Let me serve you'. In addition, Sheikh Arif Abdul Hussain delivered, off the cuff, a powerful philosophical speech about love, marriage and the human birth. I, along with so many guests, were truly mesmerised and impressed at what Sheikh Arif, originally from Sorothi in Uganda, had to share, so eloquently too.

Also showcased during the ceremony were two slide shows displaying photographs of Theresa and Daniel's journey so far. In addition, a song by the Earles, with David on the guitar, was yet another highlight of this round-table event. Guests were treated to a sumptuous meal reflecting a world cuisine. The reception was held at Row Heath Pavilion in Bournville.

David and Patricia Earle, who are doting parents to four grown-up children - all professionals in the medical field - are an exemplary husband and wife team who have devoted their lives to bringing people together, regardless of their differences. Their selflessness, generosity and mutual respect for all deserves full credit. Their home is a shrine in its own right, the sacredness of which radiates love, peace and unity to all those fortunate enough to know them.

David and Patricia Earle daughter's (Theresa, a medical doctor), public wedding in Birmingham, together with many people from other faiths. It is a great example of a successful tribal messiahship result. There was a beautiful report in the local newspaper for the Asian community.

..... Francoise Murphy

For her sincere devotion to developing and supporting interfaith activities in the town of Watford in the United Kingdom.
Inspired by True Parents' vision of Cheon Il Guk, she has dedicated her love and energy to interfaith outreach and humanitarian programs. Going forward after the tragic passing of her beloved husband, Patrick, in 2012, Francoise has devoted herself to activities such as Bridge of Peace ceremonies, the Annual Watford Interfaith Pilgrimage, and the Watford Celebration.

Elected Mayor Dorothy Thornhill is a keen supporter of Watford Celebration and has been our patron for many years.

The Watford Borough Council, St Michael's Catholic High School, FRedome Visionary Trust, National Lottery Fund Award for All, Herts Fire and Rescue Service, Watford Community Housing Association and many more organisations and individuals have sponsored Watford Celebration over the years.

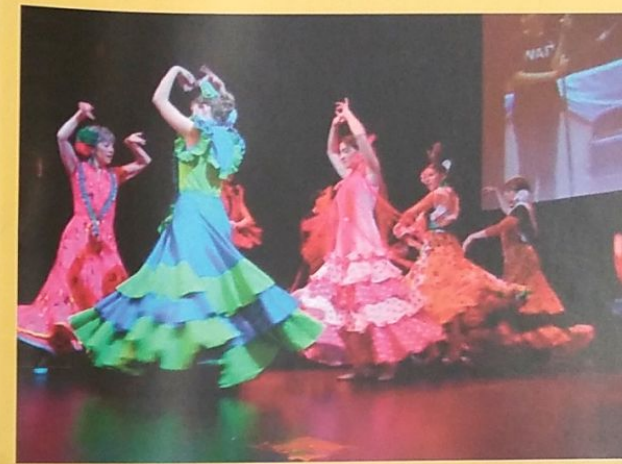

The Watford Celebration has been a success over the years due to the dedication of a team of volunteers from various organisations.

Watford Celebration is looking for anyone to join its team to organise and sponsor its annual events. If you think you can help, would like to participate or for more information, please visit our website at:

Universal Peace Federation, United Kingdom

For developing very successful programs in the British Houses of Parliament. Since 2003, over 120 events sponsored by UPF UK have brought the core values of True Parents to the highest level of British and international society. Under the core leadership of Robin Marsh and Margaret Ali, thousands of prominent people have come to respect and appreciate True Parents. Highlights of the work of UPF UK occurred in May 2011 in the House of Lords, when True Mother read True Father's speech from his 2011 European tour, and in September 2016, in the same room, when Sun Jin Nim read True Mother's speech during the European launch of the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace (IAPP).

Dear Robin Marsh,

I am writing to thank Universal Peace Federation UK for taking part in this year's UK Parliament Week. Without partners such as you, UK Parliament Week wouldn't be possible. Please find enclosed a certificate of achievement from the Speaker of the House of Commons and the Lord Speaker in recognition of your contribution.

This year we had an unprecedented range of activity, with over 300 events and activities across the UK, from Orkney to the Isle of Wight, including walking tours, debates, talks, question and answer sessions. There was also lots of social media activity on our hashtag #UKPW16, including photos of many of the events and activities that took place during the week.

Next year's UK Parliament Week will take place from 13 – 19 November 2017. We would love you to take part again, so please mark those dates in your calendar.

If you haven't already done so, we would be grateful if you could spend a few minutes filling out our online UK Parliament Week Partners' survey, at goo.gl/gBbzRK. Your feedback will help make UK Parliament Week 2017 even better!

Thank you again for your continued support of UK Parliament Week. We look forward to working with you again in the New Year.

Many thanks,

David Clark
Head of Education and Engagement
Houses of Parliament
