Daily TPs' Hoon Dok Words ***

The desire of all things is to see the day when we can receive the true love of God through human beings. All things of the creation are looking forward to the fulfillment of the three basic loves: the love of God, the parental love from true parents, and the love of the children who receive this perfect love of God and parents. Because of this day, the entire cosmos has become harmonized: God, humanity, and all things. All things can find their real owner and all humankind can give glory to God because we have the freedom to embrace and love all things. Following our Father's example we should fulfill our position as God's representatives and children and truly love all things.

Message Title:
"Celebration of the Day of All True Things
and Father's Day"

Dear brothers and sisters,

You may have already read the memo from our National and International Headquarters reminding us of the upcoming 58th Day of All True Things, which will be celebrated on Sunday 21st June.

Regarding celebrating the Day of All True Things locally, due to the restrictions on public gatherings, HQs are not recommend arranging an offering table and holding large gatherings in local church. Therefore, I would like to invite each family to have a celebration in your own home.

Please, feel free to download the holy day package to create a simple holy table, with a place setting for True Parents to show that in our hearts we want to welcome them just as much as before.

Once again, Happy True Day of All Things and Father's Day in advance,

Sincerely,
Ken & Song Doo

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR VIRTUAL ONE HEART CAMP

As Camp Director Kazuya-san explained in his email to the parents, this year's One Heart Camp will be online via Zoom, due to the City of LA's decision to cancel all summer camps this year.

What we are envisioning is an online day camp, where participants would be engaged in a few hours per day of receiving lecture/guidance, discussion in teams, and activities via Zoom.....
