On July 4, the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU) in Moldova has continued its vibrant community engagement through two targeted events celebrating core family values and youth development. Recent initiatives highlighted the organization's dedication to fostering social cohesion, receiving official acknowledgement from state authorities for its impactful grassroots

International Children's Day Celebrations

In celebration of International Children's Day, FFWPU volunteers organized a series of interactive and educational events aimed at bringing joy and creative expression to young people.

Locations: Activities were hosted across multiple regions, including the capital city of Chişinău and the village of Costangalia.

Core Activities: Volunteers facilitated a variety of engaging recreational games and hands-on creative workshops designed to build teamwork and confidence among participants.

Official Recognition: The impact of these events was officially recognized by the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection, highlighting the value of FFWPU's contribution to regional child welfare and community support.

International Family Day and The Happy Family Festival

To honor International Family Day, FFWPU Moldova shifted its focus toward strengthening marital bonds and celebrating the foundational role of the family unit within rural communities.

Event: The Third Annual Happy Family Festival.

Location: Held in Bujor village.

The Blessing Ceremony: A core highlight of the festival was the participation of local couples in traditional affirmation ceremonies. Nine couples successfully completed the Three Steps of the Blessing, publicly renewing their commitment to building loving, resilient families.

Conclusion and Outlook

Through the dual focus on youth enrichment and marriage fortification, FFWPU Moldova continues to bridge local community needs with national family values. The positive reception from both local villagers and ministry officials underscores the growing relevance of these initiatives in building a harmonious society.
