

FFWPU Thailand Hosts CheonBo Family Candidate Meeting

Kamol Thananopavarn
August 15, 2026

Objectives:

- Deepen Understanding: Clarify the meaning, value, and responsibilities of becoming a CheonBo Family.
- Provide Practical Guidance: Outline the necessary steps, requirements, and preparations for candidate families.
- Strengthen Commitment: Inspire families to fulfill their providential roles with sincerity and dedication.

On August 15, 2026, FFWPU Thailand hosted an online CheonBo Family Candidate Meeting via Zoom, gathering 29 participants from across the nation. The session aimed to guide, encourage, and prepare aspiring families as they embark on the path toward becoming CheonBo Families.

Emceed by Rev. Raweetheewat, the program began with a Holy Song, followed by the Opening, Kyungbae, and Family Pledge. Rev. Kawahara, Vice Director of the Indochina Region, offered the opening prayer and delivered inspiring remarks, urging participants to approach their journey with determination and sincerity.

Key program highlights included:

- Steps to Become a CheonBo Family: Rev. Sangkom, Director of the CheonBo Family Department, presented a practical roadmap explaining the qualifications, preparations, and responsibilities required of candidates.
- Personal Testimony: Mr. Gosol Sittichianwong shared reflections from his personal journey, offering valuable encouragement and inspiration to attendees.
- Interactive Qanda Session: Participants addressed specific questions regarding the CheonBo Family course and its practical application.

The meeting concluded with closing remarks and a benediction by Rev. Moonnoie, Director of the Indochina Region, followed by a virtual group photo. Despite being held online, the active engagement of all 29 participants fostered a strong atmosphere of unity, inspiration, and renewed determination to fulfill their providential responsibilities.