Discussion	The discussion began with "Welcome back" remarks for Rev. Doo. He began to explain the significance of the 3 Balloons that were present during the Blessing Ceremony Feb 19th in Korea. Cheon-jung Won, Cheon-Jae Won and Cheon-gong Won are a part of the new system that True Mother has set up. For more information on this matter, please see Rev. Doo. Next, Activities Reports were given by Yasuko Oberg, Kinesha McDaniel, Herbert Brown, Wilmot Dennis and Gregg Smith. Kinesha McDaniel gave the first report for the Youth and Young Adult Ministry. She reported on the success of February's "Lean On Me" event that was hosted by CARP. Many of the church youth attended and participated in the various activities. A few of them brought their friends as well.
In addition, many of the church youth have attended DP Retreats and participated in various CARP activities. She concluded with praise for them and a proposal to hold off on creating a HARP and instead, continue to encourage them to take an active part in CARP activities and invite their friends. The next report was from Mrs. Yasuko Oberg who is head of the Witnessing Ministry. She was happy to report that this particular ministry has made the decision to expand the witnessing efforts to the neighbors. She suggested that testimonies of the "witnesses" and share the results of the witnessing. She also suggested that members be reminded about the upcoming Town Hall Meeting by text message.

The next report was given by Mr. Herbert Brown who is head of the Blessed Family Care Ministry. He was happy to report that a Blessing Ceremony was recently held. At one point, there was attempt to have a conference call to members on Saturday in order to converse with members and how their week is going. Unfortunately, the attempt was unsuccessful and as a result, Mr. Brown is open to suggestions on other methods that can be used to connect with members.

The next presentation was given by Mr. Gregg Smith who is head of the Church Service Ministry. He requested collaboration on how to connect deeper with the congregation. He also brought up various suggestions that is believed to make Sunday Service more guest-friendly. It was suggested that shoes be kept on instead of removed, a sound system be built in the back in order to declutter the front of the room, a visual monitor for the subtitles that are used when True Mother speaks that way those in the back and see what she is saying, change the tithing message to other inspirational videos or messages about offering and add time of unison prayer and reflection. Mr. Smith also emphasized the importance of having consistency within each Sunday Service. In order to accomplish this, it was suggested to create a synopsis and Handbook.

Mr. Wilmot Dennis gave the last report on the Education Ministry. He expressed enthusiasm for studying the Bible and spending time with our families.
