February 25, 2017

On Saturday, February 25, we had three participants studying the Principles of Creation at the second floor of the love building.

“I didn’t know why God brought me to Las Vegas” said Isabel, Heeju Han’s guest, after the Workshop, “It has been a very difficult time for me after my children left me, for the first time in many months I feel happy”.

She was met by Heeju at the Boulevard mall this week. She also attended Sunday service next day.
