 Daily TPs' Hoon Dok Words ***

...The origin or the cause of struggle remains a problem that must be resolved. If an individual does not possess within himself or herself a foundation for peace, then no matter how peaceful his or her family, nation or the world might be, he or she will not be happy. The individual is the true battlefield. As you know, World War I, World War II and the Cold War each came to an end. It will be possible to bring such conflicts to an end in the future. However, the struggle between our mind and body has existed from ancient times. It has continued throughout the course of history, it continues today, and we do not know how much longer it will continue into the future.....

Pumpkin Patch

Thank you to everyone who came out to the pumpkin patch! Not everyone is in the picture, but we had 15 people show up and maybe more went but we didn't get a chance to see everyone. It was a lot of fun to meet new people, eat apple doughnuts....

Shine City Project Report

.... On this morning, our group met Wetlands Park staff and other volunteers at Duck Creek Trailhead where we were first briefed on the importance of creating and maintaining firebreaks in case of a fire. Afterwards, we split into small groups and helped with picking up litter and removing brush. We had ten volunteers representing Shine City Project, and one of our volunteers
