 Daily TPs' Hoon Dok Words ***

It has not been possible to connect the words “true parents” to the time after the Fall. God's ideal of creation began with True Parents at the center. However, because of the Fall, people's lineage changed to something completely different. The nations are also different from the originally intended unfallen, natural nations. Originally there was no religion. Whether to do with religions or nations, any relationships or connections based on the lineage after the Fall have no relationship with True Parents. The only thing that is absolute is God's concept of True Parents that He had in His mind before the creation, a fundamental idea that is connected to God's love, life and lineage. All the ideas, concepts and relationships that you think about have no relationship whatsoever with the ideal of True Parents before the Fall. (491-144, 2005.03.18)

....To help us on this task, we had twelve volunteers representing Shine City Project! One of our volunteers was joining us for his first time! Though at first we were unsure at the amount of potatoes that we should distribute to each individual and family who had come to receive food, we ultimately decided that it was best to be as generous as possible. Repeatedly, we often offered to fill an individual's bag with a little bit more potatoes, and then afterwards offering even more.....
