WFWP Birmingham, UK: Mosque Presentations

I have been invited to speak about my work for peace in several mosques recently, including 2 Ismaili mosques, as well as Birmingham Central Mosque.

On January 24th, the UK Islamic Mission invited me to share a presentation for about 50 ladies in Birmingham Central Mosque, the oldest mosque in the city. I spoke for 20 minutes, especially about the Women's Peace Meeting and its impact over the last 30 years, followed by 10 minutes of question and answer.

There was considerable interest, and I hope it will open peoples' minds and heart towards other faiths.
