Colorado Family Church's Youth Ministry held a fun Inter-Generational Brunch on Saturday, June 10, 2017. The purpose was to bring all generations together to celebrate each other and True Parents, our founders.

Yongil Fleisher, the Colorado Family Church's Youth Minister, began brunch with an opening prayer. He explained the brunch's purpose: Uniting Unificationists, regardless of age. Implementing the church growth strategy of Pastors Michael and Adonia Hentrich: making a happy, loving church that everyone wants to attend.

and yogurt.

The youth ministry supplied Austrian pancakes and guests brought potluck brunch items like bagels, scrambled eggs, strawberries, blueberries, bananas

The brunch was held in the Colorado Family Church's new Welcome Center. There were about 40 attendees; twice as many as expected. The atmosphere was so nice that no one wanted to leave.

The youth ministry's next activity will be a grand barbecue at Dave and Christine Mahardy's house next month.
