

Retune 2011: Life to a Pure Refrain

We would like to invite you to the UK HARP winter Workshop 2010/11. The motto, 'Retune 2011: Life to a Pure Refrain', is one that is focused on purity, giving time for us to 'Retune' our lives and centre on a purer, God centered lifestyle. The aim of this workshop will be to re-energise each participant's spiritual life, and find a clearer determination to put The Principle in practice - supporting each other in the process. By gaining a deeper understanding of the meaning of purity, we can be more in tune with God's perspective for our lives; by being more empowered to make the right choices we can choose to live an active daily spiritual lifestyle. We would like to start 2011 together, strengthening our bonds as brothers and sisters, and offer the time with the determination to retune our lives - living life to a purer refrain than before.

Location: Cleeve House

Age: Born between September 1st 1996 and August 31st 1992

Dates: Evening of the 27th of December to afternoon of the 2nd of January

Cost: £110 per person (£100 for every other child from the same family after)

Application Deadline: 17th December. Spaces are limited to 70, so early application is advised. Unfortunately we cannot guarantee you a place even if you apply within the deadline – but we will do our best.

Please apply by sending an email to ukharp@gmail.com – please include your name, date of birth, contact number, parents' email address and your local church community.

If you want to inquire about helping out as staff, please send us an email and we will get back to you to discuss the possibilities.

After the application deadline we will send out a confirmation email to all the participants and in that we will detail things that you need to prepare, the code of conduct and any more information that will help you prepare for the Workshop.

We look forward to hearing from you.
