

Happy New Year! It is now officially 2018!

I wonder what many of you are thinking about when you reflect on this past year and this upcoming year. I know that for us, we are taking a good look at this past year, the ways in which we were successful and grew, and the areas that felt like setbacks.

We hope that you all feel that this was a good year for you, that you felt that you grew deeper in your relationship with God and True Parents, your understanding of the Principle, made deeper relationships with friends and family, husbands, wives, children.

Either way, if you haven't already, please take some time in prayer and ask God what He has in mind for you this year.

True Mother recently met with our church leadership and made two points that really stuck out to me.

- We can't keep doing things the same way as in the past.
- It is not enough just to believe. We need accomplishments.

For this coming year, we are looking at how we can express gratitude and filial piety through our efforts and actions here in Colorado and offer some accomplishments.

Here is a quote we wanted to share from True Father in 1978.

"Even though a person may have some regrets from the past year, as long as he or she has hope and vision and determination to launch into the goal for the New Year, that man or woman can go on. If he or she has no vision and hope, however, that person is finished. Day always follows the night and even though no one really loves the darkness of night, they can still look beyond that darkness to the new day coming. Hope overcomes the darkness."

Here's to a great 2018!

Sincerely,

Pastors Mike & Adonia
