Dear Colorado Family,

Warm greetings from Ukrainian families in Denver. We would like to give some updates on the ongoing campaign to support our blessed families in Ukraine to better prepare for winter with collecting money for generators and also to support our brother Oleksandr Lukyanenko who have been wounded and staying in the hospital. So far, we have been able to collect $940. Our campaign is still going on and you are more than welcome to join it. On July 27th, 2024 Oleksandr was awarded by the President Zelenskiy with 3rd degree medal "For Courage".

Also, on July 17th, the local news agency filmed him and did an interview. In the video called "He dreams to walk again: wounded drone pilot goes through rehabilitation at the hospital at Rivenschina" you can see what kind of treatment he receives and how rehabilitation is going. In the beginning of the video Oleksandr shares how did it happened that he stepped on the landmine, how he was unconscious and was evacuated. Clinical psychologist Mariia Rodzyak said that Oleksandr is a great example for others and that his worldview, his fullness and erudition are very deep and strong, and he can inspire others by his own example showing how to overcome difficulties and shortcomings.
