Christmas Service on Sunday 22nd December at 10:30am

Carol Singers:

Rev David Hanna would like to put together a small group of singers who could lead from the front. We will be singing in unison and will lead the congregation in around 10 well-known and lesser-known carols and Christmas songs. It will be enjoyable and not too demanding.

Would you like to join the Carol Singers?

We will hold two rehearsals - one on Wednesday 18th December at 7.30pm (with warm punch and mince pies in the break!) - and another simple rehearsal before the service, at 9.30am on 22nd December.

If you are interested, and can commit to those two rehearsal times, please let Rev. David Hanna know. Any age and any level of experience welcome!

For the kids:

All children are invited to prepare their own decoration for a Christmas tree in Livingstone House. Please bring along your decoration on Sunday 22nd December and add it to the tree. Make sure your name is on your decoration! There will be prizes!!

Buffet Lunch:

We want to prepare a beautiful festive day with a pot luck Christmas lunch in the service room after service. Please let Matthew & Natasha know what dish you would like to offer and they will coordinate the whole meal!

Thank You from the Chandlers

Dear Community, Brothers and Sisters,

Yesterday we received a surprise bunch of flowers and a card from the Bromley community.

Inge and I would like to offer our sincere thanks and appreciation for this gesture, and the flowers now stand where everyone can see them. They mean a lot to us.

God bless you all.
Ron and Inge
