

Pictures of Witnessing in New York City to Bring 3,000 New Members in 1974

After I was relieved from (kicked off 😊) the first global team in Washington, D.C., heading back to NYC for a seven-day fast in front of the UN for the Japanese wives in North Korea to be repatriated back to Japan, I remained in the city for witnessing to bring 3,000 new members. We witnessed day in and day out in front of the Public Library.

About 100 mostly Japanese members and some western members, including the supporting staff lived at the 71st St Center from late 1974.

My witnessing team in front of the center.

The second one in front of the [New York City] library [on 42nd Street in Manhattan].

The third one was at Gracemere (?) (Later Jacob House). NY members went there to clear bushes and clean up all kinds of mess all day long. The picture was taken at the conclusion of the dirty work.
