The Washington Brief webcast North Korea Troops in Ukraine

Tuesday, January 7, 2025 from 2 to 3 PM EST

Kim Jong Un sent 11,000 troops and weaponry to join Russia's fight in Ukraine in exchange for food and oil and likely assistance with their satellite and nuclear programs. Reportedly, North Korean casualties are increasing, some say exponentially. If that is indeed true, how will these mounting casualties affect Kim Jong Un, globally and at home? How resilient is the Russia-China-DPRK axis of authoritarian states? Does this axis negatively affect global governance? What are the challenges and opportunities for a President Trump administration?

Join veteran observer and analyst of North Korea and human rights, Greg Scarlatoiu, and The Washington Brief panel as they delve into the possible unintended consequences of North Korea's move into the sphere of the Russia-Ukraine conflict.
