

International Human Rights Day in Peru

Trevor Jones
January 20, 2015

UPF Peru: with the aim of celebrating the International Human Rights Day the main Ambassadors for Peace met in a historic hall of the Senators of the Congress of the Republic.

After the speeches about Human Rights the Ambassadors joined together to sign a pledge to work as a Peace Council in UPF Peru. Dr. Trevor Jones, UPF President, spoke and guided them through the ceremony.

Young Ambassadors for Peace for Christmas

Young Ambassadors for Peace, brought joy and gifts to children with limited economic resources, in the city of Chincha (south of Lima). They also gave a lecture and did some activity with the parents and children to promote family values.

WFP Christmas presents

For Christmas, WFP had meetings in the Family Centers in Lima, 3 family centers in Puno and Trujillo sharing a conference and gave gifts to mothers and children, more than 250 people were present and participating the event.