

This Week in History for November 8

Seog Byung Kim
November 8, 2016

Assembly to Totally Invest Our Hearts for the Peaceful Unification of the Korean People as One People November 8, 2004, Little Angels Performing Arts Center, Seoul

On November 8, 2004, for the harmony of the Korean people, 2,000 leaders of corporations, and associations of Korean residents in Japan and leaders from the Yongnam and Honam districts attended the Assembly to Totally Invest Our Hearts for the Peaceful Unification of the Korean People as One People. Under the title, The Providential End and the Secret Mission, True Father said, “As we reach a providential time, I hope that all of you here let God’s manifestations be known and live honorable lives which complete the secret mission to fulfill God’s will through the Three Great Revolutions (the revolution of indemnity, conscience, and heart).” (Materials provided by the FFWPU History Compilation Committee)

