SPECIAL GUEST

Lamar Joseph Odom, born on November 6, 1979, in Queens, New York, is a former professional basketball player whose life story is marked by remarkable highs and daunting lows. Standing at 6'10" with a versatile skill set, Odom made a name for himself in the NBA, but his journey extends far beyond the basketball court. Raised in a challenging environment, Lamar Odom's childhood was far from easy, losing his mother Cathy Mercer to colon cancer at age 12 years old. Despite facing early adversities, he exhibited a natural talent for basketball that led him to become one of the most sought-after high school recruits in the nation. After a standout season at the University of Rhode Island, Odom declared for the NBA Draft. In 1999, Lamar Odom was selected fourth overall by the Los Angeles Clippers, launching his professional basketball career. He played for several NBA teams, including the Miami Heat and the Los Angeles Lakers, where he won two NBA championships in 2009 and 2010 and was made 6th Man of The Year. In addition to his basketball career, Lamar Odom ventured into the world of reality television, gaining further notoriety through his marriage to Khloé Kardashian and appearances on "Keeping Up with the Kardashians" and "Khloe & Lamar". Lamar stayed in the limelight appearing on Dancing With The Stars, Celebrity Big Brother and College Hill. Odom founded "Odom Recovery Group" in 2023 and has built a network of Addiction Treatment Facilities across California. Lamar has continued to build his Health Empire, in 2023 Lamar founded "Odom Senior Care" to create affordable senior living communities. Later in 2023, Odom Senior Care merged with ZNest to simplify the way families find senior living options. Lamar also founded, "Odom Dental Care" for affordable dental care which is called Oxy Dental in Lomita California. Odom's legacy extends beyond the basketball court, reminding us all of the power of resilience and the ability to overcome adversity.
