Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration based on the words of True Father and True Mother:

True Father: "We should discard everything having to do with the fallen world and return to the standard of our original mind. It means to return to our inner self. That is why Jesus said that the kingdom of God is within us. It means that unless we liberate the goodness in our heart, it will be impossible for us to realize an ideal world, a world of happiness." [1]

Indeed, the Kingdom of God does not come simply through "activities" or "hard work". It does not simply come from religious rituals or ceremonies.

The Kingdom of God only comes from revolutionizing our hearts. The quality of our love has to rise higher and higher. We all have the potential for perfecting our love. It only needs to be brought to fruition:

True Father: "You have to make true love your own. You have to witness the perfection of true love within your own life." [2]

We have to see ourselves growing in heart and love all the time. We should be able to say: "Today I can love people that I struggled with a year ago." We should always be focused on stretching our heart, not allowing fallen nature to take over.

We should never be arrogant, impatient, resentful, boastful, attention seeking, trying to control others, trying to push or force them to change according to our own thinking. Rather we should embrace them as they are, giving them the space for growth that they need. We should cheer everyone up, instead of putting them down, judging and offending them.

We have to watch ourselves all the time and make sure that our love is unconditional, embracing, humble and respectful towards everyone, no matter who. Nothing and nobody should be able to make our heart and love change. That has to become our firm resolve and our constant effort. Then we will grow fast and will see God working:

True Father: "With God's love as the core, you should become a person who maintains the law of love, whom no one can break or destroy, and you should become a substantial being of love by serving God. This is the highest ideal for man and for woman. This has been the hope of God since He created human beings and all things." [3]

Maintaining the "law of love" means to be in line with true love, unchangingly. It means to be obedient to divine love just as God and True Parents are. We must find our own way to get there. We must pioneer that way in our own heart, by exercising and training our heart all the time, at every encounter with people:

True Father: "You must go and find the way to true love. I am the forerunner along this way and you are following...Do you think it is necessary to make a great amount of noise or put on a great show for other people? What do you think? No, you don't need any cheerleaders around you. This is a path which you have to go all by yourself. It is an internal path which is very lonely at times. But knowing that you are moving toward the greatest treasure, you can have the greatest satisfaction going this way." [4]

Pioneering the heart is certainly a very internal way. If we ask them, then God, True Father, Jesus and Heung Jin Nim will guide us on that path. If we do not ask, then we do not get the precious help that we all need. Asking is our responsibility.

By going forward in heart all the time, asking God, True Father, Jesus and Heung Jin Nim for guidance, we become able to love people that we thought we could never love:

True Mother: "True love is to love even someone who seems impossible to love, and thus, in true love you have no choice except to love even your enemies. Furthermore, true love is the sacrificial love of even giving one's own life for others. Therefore, in true love the antagonisms and conflicts among individuals and among societies or nations are completely transcended and dispersed. With true love we can achieve true peace." [5]

Only by becoming people who embody God's quality of love, can we create world peace. Otherwise we go in circles, losing precious time, wondering why not much happens.

As we make our hearts grow so that our true self emerges, we see God in action and build the Kingdom of God:

True Mother: "You must divest yourselves of the traits that hold you back, and allow your new selves, your true selves to emerge, so that you can become the heroes who will build the future." [6]
