

Heung Jin Nim: Put on your armour of faith, and wear your shield of love, proudly!

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father and Heung Jin Nim:

Heung Jin Nim: "You, my generals, each one of you commands an army, each one of you stands before me to lead multitudes. But you must begin by being made anew. Put on your armour now. Put on your armour of faith, and wear your shield of love, proudly." [1]

We can become new people by gradually reaching higher and higher levels of love. That goes by us achieving the victory of love at every encounter with people, whoever they may be.

At each of such encounters we need to make sure that we win the victory of genuine love, instead of following fallen ways of thinking, speaking, acting and reacting. In our deepest heart we can feel, whether a certain encounter was a victory for true love or for selfishness. We know if there was a "shadow" or not.

To make many victories of love, we need constant self analysis. We need to be constantly alert, so that we will not be taken over by arrogance, sudden anger, impatience and the like. Indeed, the best is to come to the point that arrogance, anger, impatience and the like cannot even rise their head in us anymore.

All our thinking, speaking and acting should be dominated by the desire to be a blessing to others, to lift them up, to encourage them, to give them self esteem. In that sense we have to go to the zero point, where we are focused on investing heart into people, instead of getting something out them instead:

True Father: "Don't look at things selfishly, but with a desire to give love. Look upon a person who hates you with love, and eventually he will change. Begin sending out messages of love to those around. Pull out your old vision and replace it with "new eyeballs" of true love." [2]

This seems to be a difficult path, easier than just following any kind of fallen emotions or selfish thoughts. But in reality this is the path of the greatest blessing. It leads to more and more happiness and satisfaction, and not only that, it brings God to the forefront.

On this path, which is a very internal one, we can really do with the help of True Father, Jesus and Heung Jin Nim. They can be our guide on our internal journey of heart and true love. Without such a guidance everything takes much more time. That means we need to ask for their help all the time. Otherwise we really miss out:

Heung Jin Nim: "So you must, you must connect. Make every effort you can, but don't be afraid. Don't be afraid at all, just relax. I will help you. Just ask me to show you the way. Ask me to show you through the darkness of your own heart, through the barriers that you have there. I will help you." [3]

The more we connect with True Father, Jesus and Heung Jin Nim, the more we become new people, people in the image of God. That indeed is our highest destination. It is the greatest possible blessing of all. That is the real inheritance that True Parents want to bequeath to us.
