

True Father: The tradition of love is the core of life

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father and True Mother:

True Father: "When an individual thinks of how he [she] can contribute to the universe, the universe literally protects him [her]. Could I cause that to happen with money or power? Only with love." [1]

True love is what is most precious. It is the love that keeps giving and investing into whomever it meets. It wants to be a blessing to everyone. It wants to uplift and encourage all people, instead of putting itself into the spotlight, seeking its own advantage.

And what is most amazing about true love: It never stops, no matter what the response may be. It swallows all offences, it swallows curses, and responds with kindness, without any resentment, because it expects no return:

True Mother: " My husband and I never stepped back from challenges. Even when we faced persecution, we did not harbor any ill-will but rather prayed for those who opposed us. By overcoming such challenges we were given even greater blessings than we could have dreamed of." [12.8.14]

True love gives and forgets, and forgives and forgets. It embraces everyone, no matter whom, forever; because a heart of true love is unchanging. It never changes, not in a million years.

True love does not care about nationality, position, status, religion or cultural background, let alone skin colour. All this does not matter in true love. True love does not get stuck with such things. It is far above this. It embraces all.

True love is the love of God's quality of love. The more we develop such a love in our heart, the more we are united with God, the more protection we have from the universe, the more blessing we attract. Because by developing such a love we give the best and the most to the universe:

True Father: "The greatest treasure you can give to the nation and the world is true love. The tradition of love is the core of life." [2]

Developing our heart to the level of God's heart is the path of paths:

True Father: "To pioneer heavenly heart is the path of those who walk the path of paths." [3]

We develop our heart and love by focusing on this, stretching our heart all the time in all kinds of situations with people, and by asking True Father, Heung Jin Nim and Jesus to teach us true love. Then we will increasingly be living a true life. Then we will achieve the ideal, because then our love resembles the love of God more and more:

True Mother: "To achieve the perfected ideal, their [the people's] love must come to have the same qualities of maturity, unselfishness and total investment that characterize God's own love." [4]

As our love blossoms, our life blossoms:

True Mother: "The perfume of life blossoms in genuine love." [5]

Our love must be genuine, not calculating, not expecting, not demanding. Otherwise it loses its value and power.

Love from Bruno
