

True Father: The only thing we need is for men and women to achieve true love

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Sun Jin Nim:

True Father: "One day we want to be close to the throne of God, but only through love can we even imagine it. We are not suffering under an illusion; we are living the dream of love centered on True Parents. It is far more real than the secular world that surrounds us."

God's and True Parents' dream is a world of true love. Their dream is that we become like them, having the same love and the same ideals. This is not just a nice dream. We can make it real, by receiving True Parents' blessing, by living according to the logic of true love, thus perfecting our heart and love.

This cannot be achieved just by hard work, determination or whatever, but only by true love:

True Father: "Although people speak of becoming holy and noble, everything good comes down to the achievement of true love. Once that happens, all the problems of the world are solved. It is a rather dramatic declaration to say that the only thing we need is for men and women to achieve true love. Can this be more important than worship and religion?"

Ask God whether this is correct or not. He would reply that He is ecstatic over such a declaration and that no greater sermon could be given to you." [1]

God is not primarily interested in a world of worship and religion. That is not what we are created for. He wants a world of true families, a world where everyone becomes like Him, representing Him in heart and love.

This is our potential. We have to see it and strive to bring it to fruition. We ourselves have to become True Parents, and nothing less:

True Mother: "It is God's wish and dream (for you) to become humankind's visible True Parents." [2]

We are here to make that dream real:

True Mother: "You were determined to love and respect True Parents throughout their lives, but were you also determined to achieve their dreams?" [3]

God and True Parents are waiting for all of us to make their dream our dream and to go about to make this dream real, by making true love our highest priority in life, thus creating the true tradition, the culture of heart:

Sun Jin Nim: "You are the light of the world, the hope of all the ages. Please let us go forward in confidence. Let us build the culture of heart, the world of true love, one family under God that Heaven has longed to achieve." [4]

True Mother: "Please be the heroes of this noble task -- one unified world of peace is really not so far away. By practicing true love and living for the sake of others we build the heavenly kingdom on earth." [5]
