True Father: I always feel how vulnerable and weak I am

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some Inspiration, based on the words of True Father and Heung Jin Nim [in the spiritual world]:

True Father: "I always feel how vulnerable and weak I am but I know that God trusts me and is depending on me to fulfill." [1]

We, too, may feel vulnerable and weak. We may think we cannot do much for God because of some personal situation, because of some health problems or similar weaknesses.

But God does not only depend on True Parents. He depends on us as well. He needs people who understand His heart, who dream His dream and who practice true love and thus grow in heart, thus gradually becoming people in the image of God, like True Parents are. God certainly needs such people, and we can and should be these people.

Then God can trust us as well. He can trust us that we will move the providence forward, in our own life, not thinking we are too weak or not capable for whatever reason.

We need to be the people who worry about God's providence, who always try to figure out how to best support God in the work of saving this world:

Heung Jin Nim: "Grow up to your true stature, as God's sons and daughters. Take responsibility for the providence. That is what you are living for." [2]

If we take responsibility for the providence, then we certainly have God on our side. Then we are strong, no matter how weak we feel. And then we can help God to save this world, instead of just being bystanders, watching how the world gets worse and worse.

We need to take responsibility for the providence, just as God and True Parents do. Then we are indeed one with them. And God can exercise His power, defeating the evil in this world.
