Thank you to Heavenly Parent and True Parents, that I can be here in the CheonBo training center for the first time.

I came with very clear goal to resolve problem that I had had for more than 20 years. Hateful feelings towards my husband every time he touched me. It was really difficult for me to be intimate. And often I had the same feelings towards my children when they came to hug me. When I came here, I began to have a lot of physical difficulties, for example pain in my ankles so that I couldn't walk very much or sleep. So it was difficult to offer conditions. But I did offer devotion like going to the water of life, Hyojeong tree, Hyojeong wish paper, chanyang [singing and clapping], vigil prayer. But nothing seemed to work. I was desperate so I prayed in Cheon Shim Won, repented and asked True Father for help to guide me how to change my feelings.

Then our lecturer Dr. Moon In-seong suggested that I pray that during the chanyang our Heavenly Parent could use my hands and remove the evil spirits that are causing me to have these feelings. I prayed honestly. When I started to clap, True Parents came, stood on each side of me and did the chanyang for me. It was beyond words: there was so much energy, light and love going in and out of my body like waves. True Parents took a huge spirit out of my chest, which took very long time and was very difficult to do. When True Parents left with the spirit, I thought that I would feel relieved, but I was in so much pain. I was really cold and my body was shivering, and it felt as if, physically, there was huge hole in my chest.

I prayed at Cheon Shim Won giving my gratitude to Heavenly Parent and True Parents, apologizing that they had to work so hard to take out the spirit, but I was told that this spirit is also their child, and they want to take care of this person. As I wondered what would happen with the hole in my chest, suddenly True Parents came again and in a split second the hole was covered with skin. True Parents told me that because they took out the spirit they will take responsibility for nothing to come in unless I allow it.

I understood that I must fill up this space with a lot of love and gratitude towards Heavenly Parent, True Parents, my husband and children, and more.

I saw True Parents both times, first during the chanyang. True Mother was on my right side and True Father on my left. It felt very substantial. I could see them clearly and feel their touch the whole time when they were taking the spirit out of me. The second time, during the prayer, I also saw them clearly standing in front of me.

Through this and many other experiences I have been able to completely change my feelings towards my husband and I really wish he could be here. I miss him. Thank you for reading my testimony.
