The staff of the Spiritual Training Group introduced from the Academy of Spirituality, those who were sought out by the Spirit World, as Father promised to prepare all the students. Many first time attendees this time, but we got to see the whole thing united as one, completely like a shed of fire.

Proof of training director who wrote a song

While feeling very sad for my lost parents, when the wind blows under the lamentation tree, a butterfly flew by, "I am here," and as my mother came with me, this song was made during the conversation. Tenshingo is that when devoted to prayer and sincerity, the lyrics and scale come to mind, and you can see the surprising results of how the subjective heavenly world and the subject earthly world will promote progressive towards unification.

You should always trust that you are serving from the spirit world and challenge everything. Even if you do business, if you try it like that, you'll see surprising progress in a year. It's when the testimonies keep coming out that's what makes the church develop. Mother says, "Do not with the wisdom and thoughts of men, but with the thoughts of heaven." Don't just think about the 5th section of the family alliance, but by working hard to realize it while devoting tenshinshi, you will definitely make a leap forward. Many spirits are bound to certain places, regions, and grudges, but absolute good spirits are free so they can go where we command them.

Please pray your name and prayer, believing that absolute good spirits will come out. Mother said that Tenshinki Seishin is the new culture of heaven. Tenshinshi Seijing is the salvation arm of this era. If you pour ugly stories of the world into the hearts that are like blank paper of the second and third generations, your soul will be damaged. How much elation does it take to wash it away. ONCE YOU STAY AWAY FROM CHURCH THE WAY BACK IS SO HARD. This summer, the many visitors at the 40 day training session is like coming into the Ark of Salvation. No matter how many lies the world tells and hinders the way of their fathers, they must be children who fight with the power of principle to overcome them.

Message from the President of Nagano University of Kyungsung

"A proof of the integrity of the book of contributions by Holy Mother Han for the true mother"

On the foundation of Tenshinni all-night seijin, he has decided and practiced to dedicate his sympathy contribution to his true mother. Since Heaven granted me a book of dedication, I wonder if I wrote a book of dedication just for my mother out of pure compassion. Mother always put her children ahead of herself, and gave everything for her lacking children unconditionally. The true mother sacrificed everything to comfort and release the sad and frustrating feelings of Heavenly Father, and for the liberation of humanity, the spirit world, and all things. In front of the recent, baseless mass media attacks and difficulty to describe, this mother is worried that her children might be shocked at night, and her heart hurts. I'm so sorry, it's not enough to repent my sins and kneel down. When Jesus said to him in the Garden of Gethsemane, "Pray with me," there was no one who could afford his feelings. In this era, seeing the crying prayers and grieving feelings of Pure Water spiritual practices, many parents have come out to repent and carry the difficult crosses, benefiting from them. It is reported that there are surprising acts and miracles, such as writing a contribution just for your mother solves your own health problems, organizes your heart and feelings become closer to your mother, tears flooded, and solves your child's problems.

Words

"Now, Father, according to heaven's law, will travel freely in the spiritual world as a base in the spiritual world, and will provide provisions for the expansion of the kingdom of heaven." The true father will re-enter the flesh world as the entity of the night god, and as the entity the god of the day, he will renew the providence of the true mother who continues the earthly providence in a state of one mind, one mind and one spirit. " (17 September 2012)

If the Father has not sent you to your problems after this word, and has not revealed a revelation in a dream, then this word has not yet been fulfilled. This word must be fulfilled.

Since we can't go to Hongo-sho, we prayed at Tenshin-ni, the office of your father, and told us to think about the seijing of the mausoleum. Approaching the 1095th episode, he realized that Tenshinsai Seijo was going to inherit his mother's mausoleum Seijo. Father's thoughts became my thoughts, and my thoughts became Father's thoughts, and we became one mind, one mind, one peace, so we are determined to move forward without interruption, and we have to get into that position. The promise your mother made to your father must become the promise of every blessed home, every second and third generation. The more we are struck, the more we must become one, recover and explosive.

If we can't become one, we will be with someone who has no relationship with her mother, the absolute only universal and eternal universe mother Holy Mother Han, who has only happened once in human history and has never happened before. In the Roman Empire, Christians were captured and crucified, but it did not end. If one died, the next increased to ten, the next increases to ten, the death of ten increased to a hundred, and after a hundred it increased to a thousand. The Roman Empires were subdued. Let us become hotter in this hot summer, and send out our true fathers who are free to travel, so that we can win in heaven with all of our ancestors, together with all of us who are mobilized. Through the elation of the 113rd day since the victory entry of Tenjou Shrine, I believe that the air of heaven will be fully present in this place and will be a time for new history.
