A summary of the long-lasting words

Proof of Resilience Academy Student

When I was a college student, I looked at it in disbelief that the evidence at the all-night prayer meeting had been made. Evidence is not made, but words of sympathy from the heart. One day, he heard his true voice saying, "I can't go like this," and participated in the 40-shu training session. Emptying all the negative thoughts I've had, I've reached a point of resentment all day, feeling a mother struggling alone. I was determined to do everything for my mother and entered the academy of resilience and gained strength to rise again. On July 18th, I felt the voice of Mr. Noshin in the rain and prayed while praying all day. I'm determined to go to missions in Côte d'Ivoire and love Africa like my mother.

This time, the president of the Seihei Church was dispatched as the head of the Tenichikoku Embassy.

When his mother heard the prayer representative of this person at the Sunday service, she was moved by saying, "Why do you pray deep prayers in Korean when you are Japanese?" (This person became naturalized in Korea and started to use the surname of the Korean clan.) He was given a special order that all embassies must be informed of their true parents and only daughters, and enable them to understand the mission of this people. From now on, I was hoped to grow the Heavenly Kingdom Embassy Family Church together with students who can speak English. Even in the midst of difficult circumstances, your mother always spends her day by day worrying and wondering how she will accomplish her purpose. Even when they sent the chief Sakwa to Africa, your mother was troubled. For the love of 57 African countries, it was so difficult to find people willing to go there.

When Sakwa Bunchief, who speaks English, showed his mother a notebook with the contents of interacting with Koshin-sama, she immediately met them and immediately appointed him as Bunchief for Africa. When the chief Sakuwa chief devoted himself to the central spirits and contributions of sympathy before he went to Africa, all of the children participated in 40 shu. On this foundation, this time the spiritual training session was held in Africa for the first time. When the chief Sakuwa prayed seriously, his father sent a message saying, "There is not yet a standard for the spiritual training session, but since it is the first time, I will give you a passing score."

Eight students of the spirit academy were born from this training session. When you visit your Creator Heavenly Parents, your creativity begins to manifest. An academy student made a model with his father's picture on the moon so that every meal could look at the moon and mourn his father. Those who couldn't even read music compose beautiful music, or develop 100 menus as a barista in a cafe, and from now on, things beyond imagination will come down. As heavenly sons and daughters who have inherited the creativity of Heavenly Parents, each one of us must receive abilities such as the ability to pray, the ability to speak, the ability to praise, the ability to do agriculture, and become the master of heaven.

I used to be at an African training meeting where 28 people had spirits attacked and caused a miracle that they were clean and organized while praising Amazing Grace. It was an experience for everyone to experience the spirit world and the amazing power of true parents. Africa will further develop as a land of spirit and truth if we continue to receive creative wisdom through spiritual training sessions. They performed a song composed by Benin members in Seihei 40-shu (Seihei 40shu) and got a big move. Through music, we can develop a culture of spirit that makes the whole world praise and admire their true parents. For that, we must pray and devote ourselves to it. Each day is precious in this age. Just going back and forth is a waste. As in the scripture, "Infants prophesy, young men see visions, aged men dream dreams," we must pray fervently in the Spirit and Truth, and work diligently so that we may have wisdom to lead the world. In this big job, I realized that even in the midst of difficulties, we can be one. Mother, the spirit world, and us on earth could gain strength through this. If our supplications are sent to heaven, the righteous on earth will rise up everywhere and testify against your mother. Amazing things should happen on earth, just as the underworld is mobilized. Tenshinkai Seisei is a prayer meeting of amazing power that can speed up providence. I pray that the whole world will do their best with the single thought that your father will be sent, and I pray that your father's authority will be granted in all heaven and earth.
