Summary

I must try to give back the glory of my mother by making a receptionist that I had never experienced before in this major role. Pure Water and others are singing to Amaishoshi, and are eagerly preparing a song that they would like to hear when their mother comes. When your mother asks you that song, it's good to gather our eligibility so that we can clean up all the hard things. Mother had strong convictions and said "The truth will come out." I wish your mother's truth could move the hearts of all righteous people in this country.

Proof of a mentality

I was moved by the greatness of this Shuyo student's mother's faith. Husband collapsed with heart condition, stepmom has dementia, heartbroken for their three children while raising their six children. If the family head of the church had never seen my mother resting with all the difficult affairs of the house with a deep heart like the sea, and with all the devotion of the universal devotion. There were days when I couldn't sleep in the kitchen, worried about my sister who wouldn't come home because of the evils of the world. My mother knew how many tears shed, and she prayed for her sister 1000 times, plus 100 times every day, and passed 10,000 times for three months in a row. I listened to my sister for six hours every day, she dismissed the central spirits, and she gave her all the diligence that Satan touches her. Finally it was reported that my sister received her blessings this year and is living happily ever after. I am convinced that Tenshinzai prayer does not fall to the earth. You don't know how important a mother's prayer is.

This Shuen student was able to complete the feelings of his brother and sister by loving his sister with the feelings of his mother. We have to complete the four major emotional spheres over our lives, but the first child's emotional spheres can be said to be entering a position where as a child is completely in contact with the feelings of her parents. If a couple has that love and is blessed and loves each other according to the feelings of their parents, they become a true couple, and if such a couple bears children, they become true parents.

Message from Chairman Park

"At the Yankee Stadium, we were hit by a storm that seemed to mock and laugh at our graciousness and insolence. But still, I never lost hope, singing "You are my sunshine" and grieved my true father who shines his spiritual light on me. It rains a lot lately, but the more it is in times like this, we have to offer our hope to our Heavenly Father in memory of Holy Mother Han, just like we sang this song at the time. You must power through setbacks and adversities. The whole heavens are hoping that the true mother will return safely to Tensho-gu Shrine, so soon the rain will stop and the sun will shine, and the warmth of the mother will pass on. I am in charge of American provinces and other provinces. Spiritual providence to protect Holy Mother Han is ongoing in America too. We will move unrelentingly so that the Christian nation God America can stand firm on Holy Mother Han. "And your mother reported to heaven, saying, 'Wait just a little longer, for your children will surely take charge.'"

Therefore, it is time for the children of the spiritual world to be rewarded as the entity of their mother's faith. Looking upon the generations who bear the decrease of the sins we left on earth, cannot sit still. Mother has never scolded us in the spirit world, but has blessed us with saying, "Fulfill your responsibilities from now on." The spirit world has the same feelings as everyone else, and I want to offer my infinitely sorry and endless gratitude to my mother. Mother, I'm still too sorry for coming to the spirit world before. Coming to the spirit world now I understand why I had to come first. In the spirit world, I will visit my father and fulfill my mother's wishes. I love you, mother. We are always working for your mother, so please don't worry and stay healthy. "\

If the spirit world, which transcends time and space, praises with you, the absolute good spirit world will be able to help more, and its gates will be opened. If you praise the "Megumi of Holy Communion" with all your heart, even Satan will be moved, so if your thoughts of joy and gratitude abound, miracles begin. It is too sorry to praise the "Megumi of Holy Communion" every day despite your mother being in a harsh environment, but if you sincerely unite with the Heavenly Father and True Father and understand the meaning of praise, I believe that miraculous victory will unfold before you. With the "Holy Communion Megumi" made in Busan in 1953, I wish you all the best that you will not be defeated by any hardships, and move forward toward the day of fulfillment.
