A summary of the long-lasting words

True Mother, who follows the path of true love even in prison, for only true love is the path of Heavenly Father and Mother. Grudges, complaints, scolding each other and disagreement arises in this difficult time will lead you off the course of true love. When you go off the rails of true love, Heavenly Father cannot be with you. Let us not forget this is our practice, how to walk the path that our Heavenly Father can walk with us always. Knowing that if we stray from true love, we become poor Heavenly Parents, we must now realize each and every word of our true fathers, who have walked the path of true love, despite all kinds of ill spoken of us in prison throughout our lives.

Proof of a mentality

Although he was born as the second generation, his mother died when he was one year old, and his father was in financial difficulties left his children in a spiritual child's household and disappeared. The households they took care of were too busy with provision and couldn't receive enough love from their parents. In order to satisfy his loneliness, he was living a life of diligence with his friends, but possessed by evil spirits, he developed all kinds of diseases such as panic disorder, anxiety disorder, epilepsy, and interpersonal phobia, and he was forced to discharge from the Don't feel safe just because you were born as a second generation.

The spirit world relates to a person changes depending on how they live. That's why your mother said, "Seihei is important, if you organize the past with Seihei and organize the present, your future descendants will be better." You must play the role of a third generation savior. " said. I once fell down screaming in the spirit training session, and the staff went through a lot of hardship to sort out the spirit, but I wonder how worried the mother in the spirit world was. At this time this man had the experience of hearing his father's voice. "You are my child. I love you, but you couldn't feel that love. You are my sweet child. You must be blessed. "Brought about qualitative changes through this spiritual experience. Fully restored faith, selfish thoughts turned into altruistic ideas. I became a person who could forgive my father with love, who left me when I was 1 year old, and overcame all my phobias to become completely reborn. Indeed our true father and father are great.

Even if you want Koshin-sama to lead this soul to the spirit world training session, it will not come true if the standard of sincerity is not met, no matter how much you pray. The optimization of Tenshin Yakuji means that most of the people who had Tenshin Liao, such as the directors of the Shuren Institute and the staff of the Education Department, became people who had the power to organize spiritually. All the chiefs underwent such training. When the branch chiefs pray and devote themselves, the spirit world is with them, and they can be organized according to their words. Without integrity you cannot follow the path of trust and truth.

The sound of Tenshin Daiko is exactly like the sound of the heart. When you connect to your mother's umbilical cord, it starts with the sound of your heart beating, and all your fours and bodies can be born. When you listen to the drums and start organizing everyone's umbilical cords feel connected to your mother, the amazing officiating begins. Through people with such experiences, the cry increases gradually, I believe that if this generation comes back to life and the shout increases, there will be peace in the world. There is no peace for lack of prayer. Pray more and put more heart in your heart if there is a miracle history of dead coming back to life then peace will be achieved and world peace will be achieving. Heavenly Parents are Heavenly Parents who live and do the work. I wish that today would be a time to encounter our Heavenly Father in spirit.
