I hope you're doing well

1467th Tianxin Garden is honest all night

Summary

On the 100th day of the mother's struggling journey, 104 people gathered at Seoul Detention Center, centering on the 1467th Tenshingen all-night seishon, and the new year is offering special seishon to overcome their hardships with greater love and responsibility, and complete release. With a heart that looks back and organizes the year, I also wrote a letter of sympathy, and I hope that this night will be a night that I work hard to depart with new hopes.

Proof of Shuyo student: After graduating from Seiwa, he was dormant, but went to America for the Spiritual Academy to do 40 and Reality Training Department, and now he will depart as an African Service Corps. Through training, she became a shrine maiden, received the trust of the best workplace, and received a guarantee of an extension for two months, performed surgery on her father, and went to the world to gain experience, focusing on her father's provision, she developed her roots of faith. I believe that I will be able to do more evangelism and win wherever I go.

In a small church where a pastor has been appointed for the first time in three years, a man who said he would never go to the training was recommended by the pastor and joined the training meeting, and decided to join UPA in the spirit of Marine Corps. When I built a Tenshinzen prayer room in my home, I devoted myself to all my sincerity and participated in spiritual training, the words "be now" came out of my mouth, and I was able to completely change in my tears of prayer. I thought it was thanks to my mother who always wrote letters of sympathy and became a household with an emperor after 430s of ancestors' blessings. I was determined not to let my mother go alone, and I was determined to live loving her life. Furthermore, he entered the Moshim training session and realized that Moshim means obeying your true father and mother in a truthful attitude, and promised to practice a life of thinking about the other person, Heavenly Father and Mother, and True Father above me. As my father says, "The secret of success is to serve, and anyone becomes successful in any place," I decide to become a person who serves.

Father's message at Saturday's Praise Prayer Meeting, "I want to hold each of your hands, hold them in my bosom, and crush them together. There are so many circumstances that cannot be expressed by one person, and if I ask someone to draw attention to their life, everyone has a situation that cannot be heard without tears. If any child has a lot of money and doesn't listen to you, he wants to visit and educate each child so that he can listen to his parents. Missionaries who left their all behind and came to Korea near and far away for the purpose of achieving with their true parents. I can boast to the whole world that they are even more patriots than Koreans. If I told you that the people who brought true love and true peace to the Republic of Korea in the world are the very Japanese. However, from a celestial point of view, the future of Korea was brightened by the sacrifice and dedication of Japanese missionaries. Same with missionaries from Philippines and other countries.

Every church I went all around. Most of them are missionaries who left their own country and came to the land of their true parents' hometown in Korea. They live in love with love and indignation that even Koreans cannot. Even if we raised money, nobody would do so. EVEN PEOPLE WHO RAISE MONEY WILL GET TIRED AND DRIVE AWAY AFTER SOME TIMES. Ten years, twenty years and a lifetime, it is not easy to live in a foreign country. That's what missionaries do. Because they have understood the spirit of heaven, they are children who pray for their households, for this country, for the world, for the purpose of fulfilling the word. I want to hug each one of these people, but when missionaries who have walked through the rough roads can't overcome the trials of this world and leave my bosom, I remember a habit that I can't express.

When I leave I feel so sorry and pray to come back again. That's why your mother gave me Tenshinzen. I have this Tenshinji to give all the gifts to all the people who go away are so heartbroken, and to all the foods who have struggled to hug them again. ""To the father who can visit and look around all the churches anytime, ""Please see the reinforcement of prayer and faith in my church, my household. """"""It is the time to live enthusiastically day by day."

At the service ceremony to finish work today, Noshin-sama said, "Before we enter a new day, it is necessary to reflect on how we have lived. Not just a year, it's important how much I've been serving this heavenly providence while I was born until now. As a goal for me to earn a lot of money, I might see it as something important in my life. However, it's individual centered achievements all the way, we're in a celestial position, true parent position, important to reflect, reflect on our past year, my life so far, and plan ahead. And as you all make plans for a new year, it's important to enlist the help of the spirit world before you do so. The spirit world has more power and prophetic power to look into the future than you think. Even if you all grab your father and ancestors with Tenshinzu, please try and pray quietly. ""What kind of goals will I be happy to carry forward into the year of 2026."

What will happen in this red horse year 2026. How is the situation in this country and the world going? ""When we pray, we all understand. And as it feels, I have plans for what path to take to serve the order of Heaven. It is easy to perish if I make plans with my thoughts alone. Repenting and reflecting on my mistakes, I must be grateful, for another year of my inadequacies. You must feel the love of Heavenly Parents and True Parents who are busy working in the midst of them. Only we can thank Holy Mother Han for his love and endless grace, that we can move forward. Therefore, know that I was born on this earth and in my life, I could not even stand here without the grace of God.

Thank you for that blessing, and decide to say that the approaching year you will be reborn as a lion, and live your remaining life with Holy Mother Han. Then Heaven will change the fortunes of your household, change the fortune of your church, exceed the fortune of the community, local fortunes, country fortunes, and world fortunes. Do you believe, as I close out another year with my faith, I hope everyone embarking. That heart goes to Holy Mother Han thanks giving all I take this hour to give thanks to Holy Mother Han, who gave birth to me and joined me."

Today, at this time, I pray to the absolute good spirits such as Noshin-sama, Koshin-sami, and Omama, and even if they are in the detention center, I pray to Holy Mother Han, who is the entity of the Creator Heavenly Father and Mother, and that it will be a prayer meeting full of grace.
