1473th Tianxin Garden is dedicated all night

Summary

Today is the 108th day in front of the detention center, saying, "This period is regarded as a period of responsibility and preparation for victory, and my faith is never waver." "It deeply resonates with Holy Mother Han's true mother's sentiments, and even in the midst of hardship, she devotes her special devotion toward the moment of triumph."

Proof of the training department director of the spirituality training session: Through the training session, I experienced a life and revival, and received the blessing of fully realizing my identity as a direct line daughter in the love of my mother. "I love you, Father and Mother," and I experience a tearful feeling as I practice praise. Whenever we visit the detention centre, we always sing songs to our mother whenever we have less time left, but if we also sing with the spirit of meeting our mother, we will truly feel her feelings deeply.

Proof of a trainee: 28 years ago when I was blessed with my illnesed husband, I heard a heavenly voice saying, "I love your husband as my son, I want this man to love and make him happy instead of me without body," and to keep that promise, I was able to live through a lot of hardship while farming in the countryside, sitting in the moat and giving birth to four children. But when the eldest son returned from the army, his heart hardened and suffered pain, even though he was called a proud and blessed family.

However, I realized, "I couldn't resonate with my true mother's pain due to the pain of resentment in my heart," and decided to love my family with a heart to clear my heart and start fresh. A mother's kind prayer for her child stirs the spirit world and produces adulterous sons. How to pray to mobilize the spirit world. "There is no difference between yesterday and today, but you cannot receive help from the spirit world if you are told to do so."

It should not be the sincerity of giving up because you think it's a little difficult, but the sincerity of making a decision to live and give it your all. する It takes practice of winning serious spiritual conflicts by war against spiritual behinds. One must be enthusiastically believed that the affairs of the underworld are performed on earthly grounds of integrity.

As in today's reading, our future is bright because we have a Father who serves in heaven, a Mother who guides us on earth, and two victorious entities of the Word. Yet again the grace and blessings we have received. How great and gratifying is the grace of meeting the true parents of humanity and having no skepticism about life through principle. The Father's love is full in the air as he consecrated this place.

A message from your father at the end of the year, "When I look back on 2025, I hope it will not be left with a year of pain and breakdowns." I have lived all my life, and I have suffered many difficulties that I can't tell anyone about. In the midst of this, I prayed all night with all my utmost sincerity. When you think your frustrating life in prison awaits you, how can you move forward? I don't know how many hours I spent grasping the heavens.

When I look at it, my Heavenly Father, who is even more regretful and pitiful than me, and when I look at that kind of feeling, I couldn't stop my walk even if the world said badly about me as heresy. When I devoted my life on earth to my Heavenly Parents, I came to realize that all of my Heavenly Parent's great favor and love. Heavenly Father has been with me and loved me more than I could have ever imagined. Everyone must not forget the self-confidence of being a elected bless family no matter what anyone says. It has cosmic value that cannot be replaced by anything. Don't defile it at all costs.

Holy Mother Han, every minute of living with your mother is precious. Even if something is sorrowful, it is only a child who immediately replaces gratitude. In all those moments that I considered hardships, I still have to feel that my Heavenly Father was with me. Gotta learn to feel grateful for everything when you have flesh on earth. How long will you say, 'Heaven help me', when the noble days have come on earth? You will look back wondering if you didn't know to thank Heaven for helping you.

Listen to the love of my Heavenly Father who loves me. If you have embraced the infinite love and grace of heaven, you will triumph and enter the new year with joy. Why do we always chant three billionaires? To whom we give praise and glory, because heaven is praising us in the midst of many tribulations. I give thanks and honor before the heavens, and I pray that everyone will be blessed with hope and advance for the new year. "

No matter how difficult darkness fills around me, the only way to drive it out is a crying prayer. and heaven will come and visit. It will be 2026 year of amazing favour if you be that prayer.
