Opening prayer of gratitude

Most Precious Heavenly Parent

Beloved True Parents of HEH

We offer sincere gratitude for allowing all members to gather here at this time together with the entire cosmos to offer this vigil devotion. Heavenly Parent in this precious hour, please guide us to enter the deep original world of our hearts and lead us so that our hearts may be connected to the Heart of our Heavenly Parent as we praise You with all our sincerity, as we offer all our devotion.

We want to make a resolution and find the way to comfort and protect our True Mother. Heavenly Parent, we are bound by heart. If we are sad, let us walk this path while comforting Heaven. If we are joyful, we will walk this path while offering filial piety to True Parents. If it feels as though we may collapse, we will rise again breaking through our limits to walk this path together with the SW. Therefore, we believe that for us only victory exists.

Just like Father Who underwent six imprisonments. Just like Mother Who gave Birth to 14 children, ultimately this hardship is also Heaven's strategy to lead a greater Providence. Therefore, we will gather devotion upon devotion with uninterrupted advance. Heaven has always been with us, and because this mission is always the path that a pioneer must shoulder, no matter what anyone says, the heart to walk this path shall remain unchanging as we move forward.

Because we are those who offer devotion transcending the family, nation and world, we believe that in the end Heaven will be victory. Heavenly Parent, please allow us to claim victory. Please work through us so that we may use each given hour with a hundred-fold value.

Every moment and second we will shout oeg monsei with devotion. During this precious hour, earnestly hoping and desiring that Heaven alone may govern us, I pray in the name of Yu Su Hoon of a BF gratefully attending HMH...

True children understand the True Parents's Heart deeply... That makes the reason to follow True Parents

I want to really realizing True Parents's Heart, that is the reason we are called to be True Parents's Heart... and I will be joyful or cry together, resonate with True Parents and we will go forward as true, direct children of Heavenly Parent.

With absolute faith, we will become true sons and daughters who are the people who can mature to perfection. There is no greater realization that being the direct children of True Parents...

The Japanese 40-day, when I saw them offer devotion, I really thought they are the true and direct children, and we need to be praying more. Heaven will not listen to fake prayers but sincere devotion will move Heaven.

Before attending, I was self-centered and cynical, but when I turned 20, I pledged to live for others, but after entering university, I struggled to mingle with secular people. In the military I had to strive to adapt to that group and I had to make effort in a way to survive among those who did not respect me.

As a result, the pledge I made gradually faded away and I often forgot that I was a 2nd gen member of the Unification family. While talking with friends, I always used aggressive language and found it easy to hate others. However, I did not realize that I was changing in a negative direction. I only felt an ever-growing emptiness in my heart tightening around me as time went by.

When I saw myself not feeling particularly joyful after finishing my long military service, I felt that there was a problem with my heart, and the thought that I should receive spiritual Workshop, which I had considered before, became much stronger. However, my purpose for receiving the Workshop was strictly for myself. From the moment I arrived, I could not accept the idea of spending 40 days for the sake of others. My only thought was that I wanted to receive a lot of personal grace through Cheon Shim Won devotion.

That thought changed starting from the very first day during the CY yoksa. When we began singing, 'Song of the Garden' as a preparatory song, the moment I spoke the Words 'True Parents' aloud, my emotion in me surged and tears began to flow. Seeing myself sobbing as soon as I entered this Workshop was fascinating, but I didn't understand why.

When I shouted the Words, Father! Mother! loudly I realized that the emptiness I had carried in my heart of someone who had forgotten their Parents. I realized that I had been living a self-centered and misguided life. I had forgotten the Words of True Parents.

At that moment, I resolved to spend this training period completely casting aside myself and offering devotion solely for True Mother, Who is currently in the DC, and for Heavenly Parent Who must be watching and suffering through that with a sorrowful Heart.

I began this Workshop like this receiving so much grace from the very first day. Our common goal was to resonate with the Holy Heart of HMH, True Mother. I used to find it extremely difficult to empathize with the heart of someone else, whose experiences I hadn't personally undergone. After hearing that the children Mother has been searching for, like searching for a single needle in a desert, are not the most competent or capable ones, but the ones who can become one with Her Heart, I pondered deeply about the emotions She must have felt on the Path She has walked, the agonizing Course of moving forward after True Father's Holy Ascension, the loneliness of having no one by Her Side and proclaiming FF, and the miserable Heart True Mother must have felt when Her children left Her, and unable to believe in Her when She declared that the OBD had appeared for the first time in 6,000 years of human history.

Despite all this, as I thought of the painful Path She walked to attain victory for Father in the SW and for Heavenly Parent. The tears came. Mother offered the Life of Patience in hardship and Heart for humanity, yet humanity did not recognize it. Even Her Blessed children left Her and criticized Her. Until now, I vaguely thought that Mother Lived most of Her Days comfortably, being attended in the Palace in Her Position as True Mother.

However, even with Her aged Body, She was continuing Her Mission by any means necessary. Thinking of Her, I felt She was so much the most pitiable Person in the world. She is still walking the path of the cross in a DC at over 80 years of age just as She did in Her teens. Not a day passed without tears when I thought of Mother.

Until now, I have been looking at the Providence with my own eyes. When I tried to look at everything through the Eyes of Heavenly Parent, I could understand the things I couldn't and love the things I couldn't love. During the 19th Spirituality Workshop, many things happened in our FF. There were events that brought us joy, such as the 1,500th vigil devotion, the winter GWs and the suspension of Mother's detention and Mother's trial, but there were also events that broke everyone's hearts, such as the dissolution ruling of H Japan.

Yet, these things could never break us. Just as the ground hardens after the rain, through these trials I and my fellow trainees grew stronger in our faith. We could not allow the temperature of our devotion to drop. When the dissolution ruling was announced, we knew Mother was the One Who would be more grieved than anyone else. So, there was no time to sit in frustration, knowing that True Parents have walked the path of greater pain and suffering throughout Their entire Lives than any trial we have faced, we had to be grateful, even for the dissolution ruling, knowing that all of this is the Will of HPs.

Through this ruling, I was able to learn the true love and gratitude of giving and giving again and forgetting and giving more. Through the series of events, the members of our Unification family will unite completely as one, knowing that our final victory, centered on Mother, will be even more brilliant. Resolved to continue moving forward with devotion, I received so much grace.

I felt the absolute good ancestors were protecting me and guiding me, and through the vigil devotions, I felt that Heavenly Parent was within me and cried for a long time. I also had the opportunity to give a testimony during the vigil, which brought joy to the parents who gave me life. My relationship with my family has become much more harmonious, but more importantly I received the immense grace of realizing that I am a direct child of True Parents. Knowing this, I will not be afraid of whatever I do when I go out into society.

When I think of the great Footsteps of True Parents Who proved Themselves through actions and not just Words, there is no trial ahead of me that I cannot overcome. However, personally, even while receiving these graces, I could not be completely joyful. I offered my devotion not for myself, but for True Mother Who we want released from the DC, yet good news did not come in the end. It is still uncertain when Mother will be released. I am always anxious about Her health declining more. It pains me so much that I could not directly help Mother at such a critical time when the SW is engaged in such a fierce war. I felt that I had received this spiritual Workshop too late.

As busy as H Providence is, I felt that I must involve myself much faster, starting now. realizing that every minute and second we breathe on this earth together with Mother is most precious, I resolved that I must not become idle.

My dream is to become a history teacher, who teaches the history of this nation. To grow the future generations, I want to weave the great Epic of the Chosen People of Han Korean people which Mother emphasizes into the curriculum so that the future generations know of this chosen people of God deeply.

I will proudly declare that peaceful future exists for this nation and for the entire world only when North and South Korea reunite. I recognize this as the mission True Parents have given me. Therefore, the day this Workshop concludes will not be an end, but the day my life begins anew, the first day I boldly begin to walk the mission granted to me.

Kim Gwon U

eldest of 2 sons and 1 daughter, now Blessed...

After university, just as I was about to embark on the path of public mission, I had the panic disorder condition and I could feel no hope in life. When we couldn't even dream of having a child, a beautiful daughter was born eight years after our Blessing. Looking at my daughter, I gradually became able to smile with a sense of happiness never felt before and a glimmer of hope for life.

With that courage, I participated in the 279th general 40-day Workshop. During that training, I felt the Love and grace of Heavenly Parent and specifically, with the works of healing at Cheon Shim Won, my depression improved, but although gaining the will to live, realizing that I could still not attend Heavenly Parent and True Parents as my own Parents. I was still wavering.

I entered the Spirituality Workshop where I faced the numerous, self-centered fallen natures within me head on, and my heart suffered greatly due to feelings of inferiority and self-consciousness.

What was most difficult was when I could not sufficiently feel True Mother's Heart, no matter how much I shouted and prayed until my whole body was soaked in sweat. Was my devotion actually being delivered to True Mother? Was I truly earnest for M to return to the Palace? I felt frustration and despair while suffering because my heart for Mother did not easily arise.

I heard a trainee's vivid dream where True Mother returned to the Palace. When I heard that, imagining Mother returning filled my heart and I could not hold back my tears. I felt I have sincere desire for True Mother and I am truly a son of True Mother.

Then any praying about my own situation felt uncomfortable and apologetic. Then one weekend during a CY yoksa session, symptoms of the panic disorder I had forgotten began again, the space among people feeling suffocating and stopping my breath, with the fear of death coming and wanting to run out... but I suppressed it and continued the CY, and the symptoms subsided slightly, but the feeling that it might return haunted me.

During the evening praise and Hoon Dok Hae, it surfaced again, and I thought about special ansu. At that moment, I saw the number indicating the 160 days True Mother had been in the DC, and I agonized over special ansu for my own pain, while True Mother was suffering so much more. I decided against the special ansu. After that, during the next praise session I felt the symptoms rising again, and it was fearful and difficult, but I found myself praying this:

'Mother, I am okay. If it means Your return to the Palace, it is okay even if my depression and panic disorder is not healed.'

When I prayed this, although my body was struggling, I felt my heart become miraculously peaceful. Since then, the symptoms have not appeared again.

This thought came to me in Cheon Shim Won, 'It is the thought and desire of the Parent, when the child is sick, to want to embrace them while blaming themselves for their own inadequacies. In that moment, I could feel the deep love of Heavenly Parent. I pondered on what Heavenly Parent truly wants from me. It was not necessarily for me to feel a deep heart immediately, but rather that I do not give up. Knowing this, I was able to rise again with gratitude to Heavenly Parent and continue my devotion.

Short letter to True Mother:

Mother, please forgive me, Your disloyal and unfilial son for leaving You alone all this time. I sincerely thank you for calling me to this Place.

During this 40-day Workshop, I have run forward so that my every moment could become a source of strength and joy for You (tears). Even when I suffered because I couldn't feel Your Heart well, and had frustration because my devotion for You felt lacking, You comforted me, believed in me and touched my wounds.

Mother, You Who have given me a new life, I will now live a life that repays Your Love. I will no longer look away or run away. I realized that what I can do for You after this Workshop is fulfill the mission of a H tribal messiah and be victorious to offer reports of joy to You and no matter what, I will never give up.

And wishing for Your return to the Palace...

6th Attendance Workshop

realizing what state and emotion I am, and how is Heavenly Parent thinking about this, so understanding Heavenly Parent's Heart, and when my mind and body are painful and at that moment we think of Heavenly Parent, that is attending.

The most difficult thing is thinking of myself not acting the way True Mother wanted me to act. When not personally able to realize the Parents Heart, and I forever want to make Them happy and that is the biggest change of this Workshop.

I was asked a lot of times what is attendance. Coming from a heart of gratitude and even the shortcomings offered... with repentance, and offering your possibilities up and being willing to do naturally because of the joy it is to feel, even if you are at your lowest point. Your devotion can mobilize the SW, please do not be cooled off but even if you go to the SW tomorrow for True Mother it is okay, and call out your devotion and meet True Mother, and let's meet True Mother again.

She bows to True Parents and the audience

Hello, I am Kim Nah Yong daughter

I experienced that True Mother is my own Mother, and afterward returned home with firm determination of tribal restoration, but the familiar things of dissatisfaction and being shaken by the words and actions of those around me was fading my first determination and even with negligence of Cheon Shim Won and I began to lose trust in myself.

I felt deeply that my collapse was my own fallen nature, and I came to another Workshop with an earnest heart to firmly establish True Parents and not be shaken by any environment... I felt such apology for failing my previous resolutions and grateful for an environment was again provided. But at one point, offering devotion for 24 hours and fellow trainees wailing and shedding tears but the dissolution happening anyway, and I fell into self-hatred for failing to offer enough devotion.

How could I become a child who loves my Parents without changing. The final week I received an answer: 'Sincerity'... manifested with actions rather than words, and that is the heart of cheonshim. Word's without sincerity do not reach Heaven. I had been acting according to the atmosphere, conscious of the behavior of others. Facing a sincere heart, sometimes involves pain and I had been turning away from it as well as True Parents within me.

While praying, a scene from my childhood came to mind when I was comforting my young sibling looking for a mother who was away and only wishing for my mother to return as soon as possible, and that wish was exactly when sincerity was... It was not really the attitudes of those around me that was the problem, but my own pain of determining but failing to do things and the Heavenly Parent and True Parents in my heart suffering tens of thousands of times more than the pain I was feeling and Mother was not trapped in the DC as much as trapped in my own heart not knowing True Parents were always in me and putting all Their devotion with a heart more earnest than anyone else and devotion to move Heaven must surely resonate with the Cheonshim to establish an earnest devotion.

There are still layers in me that need to be emptied, but as I peel them off one by one for true sincerity, I can be one with Heavenly Parent and True Parents and be an unchanging daughter. I was scheduled to be a missionary due to this April but it is delayed with uncertainty due to the ruling... I felt that Heavenly Parent and True Parents are still with us the same and the Dream will surely be fulfilled because of Their unchanging Love and gratitude in any environment.

Just as the Japanese members simulate HPs Heart, I will also be a daughter of hyojeong who brings joy to Heavenly Parent. applause

... another day in DC, with what Heart are You passing the days and I am truly concerned for Your Holy Body. Thinking of You over 170 days where there is no window and You cannot speak with those You wish to, I feel such incredible sorrow to break my heart...

How much must You miss Father and Your children and want to deliver the Love of Heavenly Parent to your global children, and You cannot even look up to the sky... (tears every day)

I felt You have already surpassed all limits but still worrying about Your children with unending tears... (She is hard to speak) The OBD, True Mother Who knows the sad and pitiful circumstance of Heavenly Parent Who longs to embrace true children this very moment.

Mother, You walk the path for the sake of ignorant and sinful children who do not understand. Mother, I am truly sorry for returning so late, causing You pain. But let me give my gratitude for now being able to move forward again, for Your children and Your sake.

I fear nothing except the thought of You leaving this earth. Therefore, please use me.

The fact that we are rising again like this is the work of Heaven, so please do not worry. We will surely achieve and not collapse and will unite even more strongly and proclaim You to the world.

I love You from the depths of my heart with a longing that feels it may burst every day and we beg of You to take care of Your Holy Body...

While You are with us, we will connect more to each other for Your sake... Please take care of Yourself as much as possible and we continue devotion so that Your Body and Heart can be protected.

Now, I'm returning to Japan to start my family life and by 2027 I will restore my husband's family and my own family, with already witnessing to each other's family and all my siblings restored with only my father remaining.

I will keep moving forward, so True Mother though it breaks our hearts, please wait just a little longer. For You to return to the Palace one moment sooner, we will show our earnest devotion...

Completing 2 Workshop now I chose to enter the Spiritual Academy and am a coordinator for the Spiritual Workshop.

As a child, I followed my parents, mostly liking just to hang out with friends. Later, I chose to major in tourism, leaving my family behind for training, and having to take nd plane and ferry just to visit home felt lonely like in exile.

Paradoxically, this is what drew me closer to the church where I felt the warmth of human connection which kept me alive. However, in the HJ Mobilization Team four times... and listening to society accuse me, shook my faith to its core, but I offered night vigil prayers and after a month of agonizing, I made the determination to accept the 12th Spirituality Workshop. Even physically close to the church, I was far from shimjeong with True Parents knowing mostly in my head that They had walked the path of suffering as the Messiah, but as soon as returning to daily life, turning my back on Them and living however I pleased, even using allowance from my parents to go out drinking with my college friends.

However, through the Spirituality Workshop, the faith finally went from head to heart and fighting against my fallen nature of hating others, I was able to constantly grow more to truly love people.

I wanted to graduate from the Academy to return the grace I received, but during prayer I felt Father wanted me to help out in Jeju, so I headed to the frontline, but my burning shimjeong gradually cooled down and the weight of my uniform felt heavier and heavier. Nobody was judging me, but I constantly felt judged.

I lived with the nagging question of worthiness to wear the uniform. With True Mother in the DC, I realized that I couldn't just stay as I was and determined to attend the 40-day. When the entire world was criticizing True Mother, it was a time I could train myself harder to melt shimjeong heart into my daily life, offering devotion specifically for Her. Because I had nothing to show for myself, I desperately struggled wanting to mobilize the SW.

During this time HyoJN and HeungJN deeply touched my heart and I tried harder to be a child to offer true hyojeong just as they did. Then hearing the words that we are the last generation to attend True Mother on earth, I resolved to do whatever I could and joined the Academy.

I didn't want to be a coordinator, feeling it was the heaviest and most difficult position, while I was lacking, but thinking of Mother, I knew I couldn't avoid it. Standing for hours holding a camera and working till 3 and 4am was not the hardest. The hardest part was that my own shortcomings were causing Workshop participants to get hurt. I saw a journal entry that one sister wrote, 'I'm never coming back.' (tears) When I was a staff member, so sorry to Heavenly Parent and not being a stumbling block for others resolved not to take leadership again.

The thought that I had failed to be a source of strength for True Mother and went to Cheon Shim Won to apologize to be a burden and pleading for them to show me what to do and calling out the name 6,000 times, and resolved to step down, but True Father told me I hadn't been looking at the participant with true love. From then I tried to view from True Parents and transmitted true love completely and they continued to the end.

I realized that the most important of the position is to be the representative that give true love... I tried hardest and that person's problems were resolved. When wavering I would randomly open the Book, 'The Way of the Will' to find strength. I would get exactly the words I needed, like 'There is no one Who has endured more than Heaven and endured more than Heaven...

Through my camera lense, I wanted to capture sincerity... trainees were going all out and I realized what the True Parents must feel looking at the children, wanting to embrace every single one who came to the Workshop. I will become a person like this. All is built on the BS and Ts of True Parents and I will see the day when trainees are raised up like in a bamboo field...

A Base of Heart where One can Be Reborn in cooperation with Heaven and it is shimjeong that moves us toward the final ideology, ultimately determining my entire being. Only a person who holds onto shimjeong and searches can hear the Words that are spoken, see the visions shown and analyze every reality of life.

While feeling there are people who are fulfilling their responsibilities and suppressing their anxious hearts, a movement of heart where the crying voices are heard, then through their heart they will be able to feel everything historical and fought for over a long time all at once.

Only when a person experiences a moment of shouting unconsciously, this is what the Heavenly Parent, the person of the Ideology was seeking... a true image sought where Heaven and earth could stand before Heavenly Parent with pride. Only such a person is the master of history, providence and Heavenly Law.

Today you must fulfill your responsibilities and results within the world of relationships and ties. If you do so, you will be able to take pride in yourself and an awakening will arise saying 'I was the victor who stands in the place of the original human being. In such a moment this universe will become yours and God will also become your God.

The land of CP is for a base of cooperation between spirit and flesh, a base where families, nations and the world and Heaven and earth can be born and unfurled with heart to establish the Heaven Realm. If the Unification Church is in a position to overcome trials, it can develop leapingly. The fact that young people from the world gather here to receive education and make heavenly families is something that can be boasted throughout all the land of H Korea, something that also Asia and the whole world to be proud of.

Also, I am walking the path of the cross as the path of hope. The Unification Church tradition is connected in a line from parents to sons to daughters and BFs, Christianity, America and the world, and this will grow larger and larger, and you should say that, on such a magnificent path, I do not want you to send me off with tears. Satanic side might think we have lost, however we haven't lost. During the Covid time some said Providence was over, but True Mother offered the grace of online attendance, and if we did not have that what would we have done? All things are possible from Heaven's perspective and being one with Heavenly Parent and HMH... then nothing we cannot achieve. H Japan will rise... All 180 churches will become ten thousand and 100 thousand more and be even more prosperous and able to love 2nd and 3rd gens with true love, from right now, not my or your child but we all are lineage of HPs and with that mindset let us march forward. If dark side can hit, but if we still rise and go forward, we will be able to naturally subjugate... We have Heavenly Parent and True Parents and AGSs at our back, nothing to fear, only forward and forward from now.

Aboji, HyoJN, HeungJN, Daemo nim, and all AGSs please work through us, only victory is waiting for us and let us achieve victory through absolute faith and we offer every up to you... with absolute faith...
