Summary

208th day in jail, even though your mother is in a tough place, "I and all the food must be one." We shall move forward firmly and united. At the time of the meeting, he said only a word of conviction, but many foods gathered in this Tenshin-ni so that this word would be fulfilled.

Today, March 1st, is the 67th True Father's Day,

Mother departed Heavenly Father Holy Convocation on May 8, 2020 at the 66th Anniversary Special Gathering

"The completion of providence must start from the season of spring and complete." The true Parents' Day event must be on March 16th, and Heavenly Parents' Day must be on the lunar calendar. Why it has to be that way. Heavenly Father prepared everything all winter, causing spring flowers to bloom and sprout hope. The best day before heaven before mankind is March 16th. I'm going to keep my future events that way. Are you pleased? Would you appreciate it? "I love you," he said.

This word was to fulfill your father's words. "The day of gods can also be the day of all things father, mother, child, and daughter." Originally it is God's day, Father's day, Children's day, and all things day, but this is the reverse. It is originally God's day, and all this is accomplished in one day. That moment when Adam and Eve become complete and holy matrimony without corruption, becomes the day they combined. "(1972.12.13)

March 16th, the anniversary of the Holy Wedding, falls on May 2nd this year. I hope that you will devote a lot of good faith for this day. And the previous day, Friday, Tenshinni Special Seishi 1555 times became a meaningful day.

Today also marks the 67th day of the Lunar calendar, a week after the true parents had their holy matrimony, and today is also the 67th anniversary in the lunar calendar. On the day after the blessing ceremony for three children in three families, the day of the spirit revival was declared, and one year later, on April 17th, the day of 'the real resurrection day' was declared, so today is also the 66th day of the real resurrection. It is a day to commemorate that by receiving blessings our spirit has been revived, and our spirit and flesh are fully born. How wonderful if our feelings become one with that of our father and mother, and my spiritual flesh becomes a perfect entity and set the standard that I am the true daughter of my father and mother. However, even today I can't feel like my father and father are far away. We must not live in formality, but in Spirit and Truth.

According to the words of Heavenly Buddhist Father, "Apostle Paul's experience of the three layers of the spirit world was the driving force for his missionary work for 13 years." There are standards, solid roots that teachers wish for. Teachers keep this kind of belief and push to the end. As long as this belief does not break, we can push forward no matter what trials and winds come our way. ". You have to enter a place where you have a spiritual experience and put your mind into the body.

Father said only by mother at the Seiwa 40th day service, "Father agreed 120% that I will renew the Korean Church in Spirit and Truth." Today is the starting point of a new providence. As it is the time that our father is making a new beginning in the spirit world, we must also join our father on earth, return glory before heaven, and give our all to settle the kingdom of heaven. "\

October 5, 2010 in New York, only your mother said, "The 40 days after your father's consecration was a really important period. Returning to the first church in spirit and truth. When I talked about doing a living and breathing church movement my father said omma thank you very much. "\

August 12th, 2014, Mother's only saying, "If you are always awake in the Spirit and Truth, praying, and giving thanks for everything, you will hear the voice of Heavenly Father and feel it in war." These words must be fulfilled, each of you.

The message from heaven received by the second world, "Have you heard the crying of the heavenly father? Have you ever seen the crying of Heavenly Father? Have you ever understood that awkward feeling of an omma? I need to figure out what kind of mood Heavenly Father and Omma are looking at. If you guys are able to get that feeling, you must change 180 degrees. Gotta sort out all the past, take out all the blemishes, and move on purer and purer. Do not adorn it with falsehood, as the spirit world sees your truthful feelings and thoughts transparently. Pray your supplications with a pure and pure heart. I am amazed to see you. I want to lead the pier directly. I wish I could stand up in person for Omma. However, on your foundation of integrity, you are commanding the spirit world. You have to make your body properly as a sacred temple for your Heavenly Father, and devote your decision to life and death according to the standard of Heavenly Father. Heavenly Parents standards are pure feelings and pure thoughts. If you do your best with the idea of pure, pure gold, then the spirit world can act as Heavenly Parents, true Parents, absolute good spirits 10 times 100 times 1000 times more. You have to know it well. "As your father commanded you, return to your heart and your household and your church, and open your eyes of faith.

Message from Koshin, "The cold, sharp winter wind has disappeared, and the warm spring breeze has blown." We have a warm fruit wind blowing too. We have to walk again without time to feel the wind. You must move towards heaven and towards heaven, without feeling sorrow. How hard it is to climb the slopes. The last ten steps are the hardest. Just a little bit more, just a little bit more and my legs rattle. We must not give up when we can see the end. Gotta walk with more strength, more step by step. This is the year of the red horse. We must work more passionately and more forcefully. We have learned a lot through true parents. In times of crisis, we must follow the true fathers who are more forcefully leading the way. Gotta resemble your true father's guts. Even though it's difficult and difficult, it's even harder to turn your back on Heavenly Parents and live as an infidelity. If you are whipped to live as a lion with the will of heaven, you must move forward with courage to be happy. What pain or fear am I in when I have true Father and Heavenly Father behind me. I hope you walk boldly talking. When the children of heaven go in hold of the will of heaven, there is none to block them. That's why I hope I will become a girl who stands boldly in front of the world, with her chest out firmly and raised her face. "\

If all pastures and all blessed families in the country stand up boldly and proceed with witness to their fathers, I believe that a new wind will blow in Divine Unity Korea. I believe the day will come when your mother's truth will be exposed and all the leaders of Korean people will return the praise and glory. I believe that if the righteous people in the whole world know and testify to your mother, they can also win the Nobel Peace Prize. If I proceed boldly with said belief, I move forward with the absolute good spirits of the subjective celestial world toward that day of the Divine Unity of Korea, and tell me what I should do, I believe that Heaven will be the role of this night.
