Opening Prayer of Gratitude

Respected Heavenly Parent

Beloved True Father of HEH

On this night, we welcome the time of the Cheon Shim Won Special Vigil Devotion, which our True Father in Heaven has waited and longed for with a Heart of Yearning. We thank You for this time to meet our yearning Father and to pray and offer devotion with all our hearts sincerity for our yearning Mother True Parents of HEH Who Revived us who were less than a handful of dust who had fallen into satan's dominion as vessels.

You taught us Saying, 'Humanity's Desire is to Meet True Parents.' The Persons we must Meet, even if we walk the Path of death, is True Parents. Even if we were to lose all history, lose all ages, lose all of our descendants, if we Meet True Parents, we are finding the history, finding the Age and finding the Future. Such a Person is none other than the True Parents.

We confess that we have miraculously Met True Parents and are the most Blessed children in history, living each and every day of grace and Glory while Attending such True Parents. At this time of praying to such True Parents, at this time of offering devotion for True Mother, even if we lose everything, our AFAL and AO toward Mother can never be lost.

So, please Guide us at this time when we Offer Devotion with our lives on the line. Beloved True Parents of Heaven, earth and humankind, right now, we are facing trials of suffering worse than a bitter winter wind, but we will never be discouraged or shaken, because our faith is putting down its roots through Cheon Shim Won, where Father Works.

Like an olive Tree upon a rock, we believe that the more we are struck, the more refined and strong we will become. Knowing that the Grace of Restoration always follows indemnity, following the Path of Achieving Victory. By overcoming Sorrow of True Parents, we will march forward crying 'Oeg Monsei!'.

With only gratitude, especially on this night, we earnestly Desire to become completely one with the Heart of Holy Mother Han, Who Bears the shortcomings of Her children and the suffering of humankind all by Herself and Walks the Path of True Love, engraving deep within our hearts True Mother's Words, now there is no failure for us. There is only Victory.

Please allow us to become children who unite as one, centering on TF4PF and the Inheritors of True Parents's Love and Victory, bringing forth the Works of the Substantial Holy Spirit at this time.

Upon this Altar of Cheon Shim Won Devotion, please Work so that the SW and the PW may harmonize, and the Fire of the SHS may Blaze. Through this Cheon Shim Won Devotion, which is like the Upper Room of Mark of the 21st Century, please awaken the soul of members and cause a wave of Great Revival that we powerfully boast and testify to True Parents throughout the whole world. Let us arise.

We earnestly pray all these words in my name, Kim Ju Wan of a BF gratefully Attending Holy Mother Han, Aju

3rd son of 5 siblings

While my mother was very active in church activities, my father had come to the unfamiliar land of Japan solely for his family and tended to look after practical and realistic (material) matters more than church activities. Because their language and values were different, our home was like a battlefield since I was young.

The fights were so fierce that, in my innocent childhood, I became unable to open up or share my true feelings or innermost thoughts, knowing neither Heavenly Parent or True Parents, I became tainted by the world.

When I was a high school student, I was even caught by the police. And when my parents came to the police station at 4am and showed looks of disappointment, I instead spoke words that hurt them further. No matter how much my conscience pricked me, I did not care and continued my unfilial conduct.

Then at age 18, when I had to interrupt my studies abroad, due to health issues and returned home, my mother recommended Sun Moon University. At first, I had a huge adversity to it, but upon hearing that they offered scholarships, I entered the language institute at age 20.

I simply could not bear to place a financial burden on my parents, and despite having no faith, I began a life of faith solely to receive the scholarship. That summer, while reading the Exposition of the Divine Principle, I experienced something akin to the Holy Spirit, realizing that this is the Truth.

From that moment on, I changed 180 degrees and began diligently studying the Word. And on my own, putting true love into practice, in order to put True Mother's Words into practice, I poured myself into countless witnessing activities and church outreach, because True Mother Gave the Words that we must surely achieve a Heavenly Korea and a reunification of North and South Korea by the time of the Cheonwon Gung Cheon Il Sanctum Entrance Ceremony in 2025.

I enlisted in the military with the mindset of establishing at least a symbolic condition. In the military I revealed that I was a member of the Unification Church, and I received the Blessing while I was on active duty by Heaven's Guidance. Even my superior officers gave me congratulatory money.

However, life in the military strayed far from the Word. Even in the process of witnessing, when explaining the Value of the Blessing, the family stories of worldly people seemed much more harmonious and happy, compared to my own family, and eventually, falling into skepticism, I stopped my witnessing activities. And when discharged from the military, I became living an even more self-centered life.

Disappointed with myself for failing my responsibility, even though Heavenly Parent had prepared every environment, I began to blame myself. Eventually, desiring to live a life of faith again, after my belief had vanished entirely, but feeling that I could not continue living like this, I participated in the 15th Yeongseong Workshop 2 weeks after being discharged.

Yet, even seeing Workshop participants shouting frantically, I felt nothing at all. Concluding that my Blessing would also break down, unless I first sorted out my own fallen nature. And as soon as the Yeongseong Workshop ended, I began volunteering at the Japanese Training Team and have been working as a staff member since earlier this year.

However, gripped by arrogance, resentments, complaints, lewdness and jealousy, my mind and body were completely exhausted, and every time I felt my fallen nature, I spent my days pondering whether I should continue being a TC staff member.

Thinking, 'I can't go on like this. Let's just quit and leave.' Every time I came to work, the Deputy Director would somehow come down to the basement reception desk place that he rarely visited, already knowing this and telling me not to quit, but I ignored it, thinking, 'If the court trial verdict comes out unfavorably on August 31st, I'm just going to disappear.'

Around this time, a staff member from the Japanese Secretariat suggested, 'Why don't you go to the Moshim Workshop?' But feeling that I could not possibly receive the Moshim Workshop in my current state, I refused.

However, through Heaven's Guidance I was ultimately given instructions to attend it.

I thought to myself, 'What kind of Workshop is this, given the circumstances? But with a mind of obedience, and thankfully due to the change in environment, during the 1st week of the Moshim Workshop, I was liberated from stress and my heart felt at ease. As I received the Workshop and poured myself out for True Mother, while pondering what Attendance truly means, I finally learned what attendance is all about, and along with the power of devotion, I came to believe little by little in the actual existence of the SW.

One day, when the Training Coordinator was recruiting volunteers for the pool for the HJ children, there were so few applicants that only one female trainee coordinator was assigned to go. Witnessing that situation, I thought 'What if my wife were the only one to go in that position? The thought arose that I want to suffer more in her place. And thought I really didn't want to do it, I volunteered with a heart of attending the training coordinator.

As I threw myself into it diligently at the time with a mindset of becoming a father to the children, I resonated with the heart of a father raising his children. As I began practicing from the smallest things, thinking, 'With what kind of attitude would True Parents and my wife want me to approach this? Self-centered thoughts naturally fell away and my heart transformed into one caring for the other.

Also, during this period I came to feel that the SW was with us, with me. The time of singing praises was like a battle with my fallen nature. I thought, 'Why do I have to sing? Why can't the people who want to just sing?' Even when I made my mind up to do my best today, when this fallen nature suddenly woke up, it was very difficult.

At times when I wanted nothing to do with it, during the praise rehearsal I told a Workshop participant standing in the back that the training coordinator is singing, so you need to come to the front. I tried to push the training participant who was behind me to the front, only to hear a voice from somewhere calling my name to the front. Contrary to my expectation, I ended up right in the front row. Another trainee who saw that happen reminded me that the SW knows everything.

Besides this incident, during the opening praise of the 3-day Resonance Workshop prayer gathering, I initially thought, 'What possible meaning does this single song hold?' However, as I tried more with a heart of attending my Parents, 24 hours a day, through moshim praising, I suddenly began to look upon the members through the eyes of Heavenly Parent.

The thought arose, 'Even if each pierce of your staggering heart is different, you've done well in coming here.' And tears began to well up. During the one-heart prayer session, I found myself praying with tears, asking Heavenly Parent to embrace the members who came to this Workshop with true love, to heal their pains with a warm touch, and the add strength so that even when they are weary and struggling, they can press forward even further even further.

Even during the praise time of the vigil devotion, although I am still not offering devotion with a perfect standard, I shouted with all my might even during the one-heart resonance prayer time. As a result, even when my voice grew hoarse, I kept crying out, receiving grace. There were many times during the prayer times of resolution when tears welled up in my eyes before I even knew it.

Through this, I felt the power of devotion and came to be able to live a life of gratitude before Heaven, as I received the Moshim Workshop and prioritizing others over myself.

Even when I felt my fallen nature and struggled, I began to cultivate that strength according to my conscience. The more devotion I offered, the stronger the power of my original mind grew, allowing me to break free from a daily routine of resentment and live with a heart of gratitude before Heaven.

However, this is not because I did well, but thanks to Heavenly Parent and True Parents Who Worked with Endless Patience to Guide a lacking person like me, and because of the sacrifice of my mother who lived a life of faith diligently and my younger sister who is the most Abel-like. And it is thanks to the Japanese Training Team members and all those who offered devotion from unseen places, trusting me to the very end no matter what I showed them.

Above all, I was able to muster strength and get through the 40-day period because I had a wife who embraced all my appearances, even when I complained and showed my anguish, always supporting me with absolute faith and giving me strength.

Through the moshim Workshop, I realized that yearning for Heavenly Parent and True Parents is the life of attendance. Through the many activities and programs, it was a growth process where I could shed my fallen nature and learn how to genuinely attend True Parents.

Also, while thinking about the practice of attendance 24 hours a day, I came to think a lot about my parents. Thus, I was able to look upon the fact that my parents lived diligently even amidst difficult circumstances. Through the eyes of Heavenly Parent, I realized that despite loving me so much, I had been viewing myself through my own selfish lense. Feeling apologetic for not having realized the Sacrifice and Love for me up until now, I resolved that I must restore my family.

Although I still have many shortcomings and my fallen nature remains to be fought, I will press forward so that the sacrifices of my family, who walked the path of sacrifice to build me up, and the devotion of all those who devoted themselves for my sake will not be in vain.

In order to fulfill True Mother's Words, 'Offer Cheon Shim Won Devotion so that True Father can Work,' I will achieve the restoration of my family, beginning with my elder sister, who currently opposes True Mother. Furthermore, together with my wife, I will build a happy Blessed family that attends the True Parents of HEH. To that end, I will steadily continue the lifestyle of attendance and devotion that I learned through the Tenth Moshim Workshop. This conclude my testimony, lacking though it may be. If you Meet True Parents, you find history, you find the age and you find the future. Because Adam and Eve fell, they lost True Parents. Furthermore, they lost the True Children. Next, they lost all things. Next, they lost God. We must recover these four lost things.

When the Unification Church established the Foundation to restore these things, there was a 7-year period from 1960 to 1967, which was the first 7-year Course. During this period, we rose to the Foundation where we could Restore what was lost.

Jesus came to this earth centering on the nation of Israel to make this world the Kingdom of Peace (Heaven Realm). Even if He had all the Power and Authority to Achieve it, if He failed to Form a Family, He would fail.

An Only Begotten Son, Whose Mind and Body were United Receives an Only Begotten Daughter Whose Mind and Body Are United to Form a Family. The Purpose of Jesus Coming to this earth is to Receive His Bride. He Sought to Find a Bride of Persistence with God(?) and Love, and persistent in the Realm of Love of the OBS and taking the Love of the OBD, at the same time the Realm of Love of the Bridegroom and the Bride is Established centering upon the OBS and the OBD.

No matter how large a nation is, no matter how long its history and marvelous culture and background it possesses is not the issue. The Standard of Husband and Wife Love where the OBS and OBD become One Centered on God is Precious. Because we lost this through the fall, without finding this, all things of the world are in vain.

Jesus Christ Said, 'I am God's Only Begotten Son. God is My Father.' To be an OBS means that He Receives God's First Love Entirely. There was God's OBS, but there was no OBD. Because He could not Meet the OBD, He is Coming Again to Meet The OBD Who Can Receive God's First Love Entirely.

The 2nd Coming Messiah must Come and Hold the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. A Man Who has Received God's First Love Entirely and a Woman Who has Received God's First Love Entirely must form a Family. That Position is the Position of the Adam and Eve before the fall.

Humanity's Desire is to Meet the True Parents. The Person we must Meet, even if we must walk the path of death, is the True Parents. Even if we were to lose all history, lose all ages and lose all our senses, if we Meet True Parents, we are finding the history, age and future.

Such a Person is none other than True Parents.

406 of our trainees are here and 12 Il Hwon Do trainees... Chairman Moon Kyon bae and Song I chol Secretary General have come to the Office. Tetu wan was what True Parents gave the Name... for the Prosperity and the Tong Il do of Il Won do

With the heart of devotion that can move the future, all of the churches will have the title Tetu won where we exercise for our physical health, and our eyes open in love. With a big heart for Tetu won, I truly believe True Father will Work through these Il Won Do trainees to receive a lot of grace.

Today, Tong Gwon un trainee shared his testimony. When he was young, he went through such a rough time when his parents were fighting a lot. It was an environment that felt like a battlefield. And living in the secular world, in his high school, he was actually (picked up by) the police so that the parents had to come to the police station at 4am.

It was such a difficult path that he lived. He lived a life unrelated to his fate, however, fortunately when he entered Sun Moon University and was reading the Divine Principle and had a moment when he realized that this is the Truth, while having an experience of the Holy Spirit. He felt that it was actually the Holy Spirit that descended upon him, the Spirit of Truth descended upon him, and had this amazing experience so that he could really begin a life of faith.

However, this faith when in the military life, although beginning with his open witness, actually began to subside and he began to go down. But, his heart was actually such a precious heart thinking that he should not remain to stand in this position, and he began to receive the Workshop.

It was a time when True Mother was receiving such difficulty, and they were offering such devotion. Looking at the trainees who were shouting like they were crazy, he felt that he never really felt anything like that about it. I believe that he didn't receive such grace through the devotion, but still, I believe because of the works of the ancestors, he was able to here as a staff of the TC, but he found himself with the fallen nature always re-appearing.

He had this heart to quit, but I believe his team leader was looking at his face, looking at him and with the heart of a parent, he could know how the child is living. You can see like a parent how difficult their life of faith is. But on the top it's easier for you to look below. Even if you are the farmer of 3,000 pigs, as a farmer, you could know which pig is having an illness.

As a chicken farmer, you could also see which chicken is sick. So, as a leader, you are able to know the status of your team members.
