Dear Friends and Ambassadors for Peace,

As we approach the close of another meaningful year, we extend our deep appreciation to all who have supported and advanced the mission of the Universal Peace Federation (UPF) throughout 2025. With renewed optimism for the year ahead, we warmly invite you to join us for our Annual UPF UK Peace Council on Saturday 6 December.

We will begin with lunch at 12:00, followed by the main programme from 13:00 to 17:00.

This year's Peace Council holds special significance. Together, we will:

- Reflect on the challenges and achievements of 2025
- Hear updates from UPF thematic associations and regional branches across the UK
- Present plans and visionary projects for 2026
- Celebrate new Ambassadors for Peace in a special award ceremony

Our programme features contributions from:

- Duchess Nivin ElGamal, UPF UK Patron & Regional Representative, US Institute for Diplomacy and Human Rights
- Dr Saima Niaz, Consultant Psychiatrist & UPF UK Patron
- Keith Best TD MA, Chair, UPF UK Board of Trustees – A Global Vision for the UK
- Ian Pelham Turner, UPF UK Patron – How to Get Your Message Across to a Third of the World
- Dr David & Patricia Earle, Birmingham Activities
- Mrs Actar Dinata, UPF UK Trustee
- Ernst Kamga, UPF UK Social Media Officer
- UPF UK Association Representatives

This gathering is a moment to strengthen our shared commitment to peace, cooperation, interfaith harmony, and the ideal of One Family Under God.

Your insights, experience, and participation are deeply valued as we shape the road ahead.

We look forward to welcoming you on 6 December for an inspiring afternoon of reflection, planning, and fellowship.

With warm regards,

Robin Marsh
