In a year marked by unprecedented challenges and profound shifts, our gathering holds special significance. During this event, we will share the highlights of our collective endeavours in 2024 and unveil the visionary projects we are planning for the future.

The agenda will feature insights from small groups that have been diligently planning various events and activities for 2025. We eagerly await their presentations, which will spotlight the diverse initiatives across peace activities, inter-religious and inter-cultural work, contributions from our Young Achievers, and collaborations with our valued partners.

Moreover, UPF branches from different corners of the UK will showcase their impactful activities. Our esteemed Chair of the Board of Trustees, Keith Best, along with other Trustees, will provide valuable insights into our plans for the coming year.
