President's Corner: There can be no peace without...

We have incredible advancements in technology. My children will never know the pain of dial-up internet or having to rewind VHS video tapes. They live in a world where access to information is akin to breathing. "Let's ask Alexa" is how we handle all of life's unanswered questions in our house. They are lucky in so many ways, and I know this foundation will help them to excel far beyond my generation. However, as much goodness as these advancements have brought us, they have also brought us an increasing amount of fear and danger.

Her Story Award: Making a Difference

On July 13, 2024, the Women's Federation for World Peace USA hosted the HerStory Award to honor two exceptional women leaders who have been making significant impacts in their communities. Emceed by Adia Lancaster, GWPN Field Coordinator, the event commenced with a warm welcome to all attendees. Ms. Adia highlighted that the HerStory Award provides a unique platform for women leaders to share the heart behind who they are and what they do.

Tea With the President / Spotlight GWPN

On July 24, WFWP USA and WFWP Arizona co-hosted a virtual "Tea with the President" event. Initiated by an idea from Mrs. Glenda Lambert, GWPN Coordinator for Arizona, the purpose of this call was to hear from the President of WFWP USA, Mrs. Kaeleigh Moffitt, about the vision and direction of the Founders of WFWP, about GWPN, and about upcoming GWPN projects in which women leaders could get involved.

GWPN Forum: A World Without Parents: Honoring the Value of Parenthood

In celebration of National Parent's Day, WFWP USA hosted the GWPN Forum on "A World Without Parents: Honoring the Value of Parenthood," emceed by GWPN Coordinator Adia Lancaster. WFWP President Kaeleigh Moffitt welcomed the audience with a quote from Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon's memoir: "Without parents, there can be no harmony in the family. This is because parents are the center and the origin of the family. Likewise, without You, the Parent of humankind, there can be no true peace in this world."
